RUHR BASIN RAIL STRIKE LOOMS

FRENCH CARRY OUT THREAT TO TAKE COAL PITS

State Collieries Managers and Directors Arrested and Various Branch Banks Seized Along With Customs and Fuel Taxes.

MINE WORKERS AND RAIL MEN MAY QUIT

Orders For General Walkout of Freight Trainmen In Occupied Area Received and Suspension Is Expected Before Nightfall.

(Associated Press.)

French threats to enforce reparation payments by confiscations were made good today by the seizure of several state mines in the Ruhr valley and various reichsbank branches.

Mine managers and directors were arrested in some cases. Miners in some of the seized pits threatend to quit if the French entered, it was reported.

Additional German resistance to French efforts to ship coal developed in the refusal of the Essen district railway administration to dispatch coal trains.

Orders for a strike of all the freight railway men in the Ruhr were received from Berlin and a general strike of these employes was expected before night.

Reichsbank branches in various parts of the Ruhr and the Rhineland were seized by the French, who claim the Germans were attempting to remove their funds to unoccupied Germany.

The French carried out their announced intention to take over the customs districts of the Rhineland. They took possession of the customs and coal tax funds. The state forests also were seized.

Reports of possible mediation between the allies and Germany by the league of nations were discounted in Paris, where it is said the French feel they cannot consent to such a step until the results of the occupation become apparent.

Seizures Under Way.

ESSEN, Jan. 19.—Seizure of state mines in the Ruhr by the forces of occupation was begun today. The Bergmandsglueck and Westerholt pits near Bauhr, were occupied by the military, and Manager Ahrens was arrested for refusing to delivery coke. Troops appeared at the Moeller pits at Gladbeck and the Rheinbaden mines at Bottrop.

Dr. Raiffeisen, president of the state mine administration, at Recklinghausen, responded to an invitation to appear before the military authorities and had not returned up to this afternoon. It is believed he was arrested.

It is reported that when the French representative attempted to enter some of the mines that were seized, the workers became greatly agitated threatening that all the miners would leave the pits of the French entered.

As the French, Italian and Belgium customs experts completed their plans for controlling the export business of the Rhineland which includes 70 per cent of Germany's dye trade, as well as the products of the Krupp plant at Aixes Les Chappell, the Ruhr valley offered neither resistance nor opposition to the requisitioning of coal shipments. The amount thus taken over so far is small.

There was rejoicing today over the letter written to General Denvilene by Dr. Grutenzer, president of Rhenish Prussia, in which he declared the French have been responsible for the increased living costs in the Ruhr.

The communication also warned the French that famine appeared unavoidable. In reply to the French retort that this was an attempt at blackmail Dr Gruetzner asserted that export houses in Canada and Holland which have been supplying the Ruhr with cereals and other food, have given notice that shipments could not be continued.

The Germans, as the occupation begins its second week, continue to concentrate their resistance to economic and financial lines. To a neutral observer this appears to have put the French on the defensive. The

Death Threat Is Made In Message Sent to Harding

CLEVELAND, Ohio., Jan. 19.—A telegram addressed to President Harding demanding $100,000 "or I will kill you" said to have been mailed to the Postal Telegraph company and signed "Mrs. Edward C. Fox" has been traced to Edward C. Fox, it is said by police, who was arrested here this morning, detectives say. Fox is held pending a hearing before federal commissioners on charges of fraudulent use of mails.

Numerous threatening letters to high officials have been traced to Fox, inspectors say.

OPPOSITION TO AN APPOINTEE

Confirmation of M'Nary as Comptroller of Currency Held Up Until His Banking Connections Can Be Thoroughly Investigated.

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Thorough inquiry into the banking connections of James G. McNary of Las Vegas, N. M., nominated by President Harding to be comptroller of the currency, was decided upon today by the senate banking committee which appointed a subcommittee to go into the case in detail.

The subcommittee is headed by Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, and includes Senator Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska. The subcommittee will examine a large mass of papers secured from the comptroller's office and bank examiners. Additional information is to be sought tomorrow when another bank examiner will be called to testify.

Committee action on the nomination of D. R. Crissinger, the present comptroller, to be governor of the federal reserve board, would be postponed until there has been a decision regarding Mr. McNary. There was said to be no opposition to Mr. Crissinger's nomination nor to that of Milo D. Campbell of Michigan, also named for the reserve board. Mr. Campbell's nomination may be reported to the senate tomorrow.

3 BILLS PASSED BY LOWER HOUSE

Thatcher County Highway Measure Is Sent Through On Final Reading.

Another Amendment Tacked Onto Anti-Ku Klux Klan Bill In Committee.

Three bills were passed by the house Friday forenoon, one of them being H. R. No. 2, by Broome and Reece, changing the pen season on fur-bearing animals so as to make it run from December 15 to March 15. The vote on it was 89 to 4.

H. R. No. 49, by Densmore, requiring the plaintiff in an attachment suit to file bond for double the amount of his claim, and H. R. No. 66, by Thatcher, allowing money from the county road dragging fund to be used for graveling highways, were the other measures that went through.

In committee of the whole, the anti-Ku Klux Klan bill was doctored up again by cutting out the section forbidding the pardon of anyone convicted under it except by unanimous vote of the state pardon board.

Standing committees sent two more bills to the graveyard, one of them proposing to exempt the property of fraternal societies from taxation and the other putting control of all paid amusements within a radius of one mile outside any second class city or village in the hands of the municipal officials.

A representative of a Milwaukee concern which manufactures electrical voting apparatus for legislative bodies was allowed, on motion of Mr. Dyball, to set up his machine in a corner of the house chamber where he could demonstrate its workings between sessions.

RILEY FAVORS NEW SYSTEM

President of the Nebraska Bankers' Association Urges a Guaranty Fund Commission Composed of Eight Members.

WOULD REPLACE PRESENT BUREAU

Dawson Man Says Saving of $500,000 Could Be Effected By Placing Receiverships Under One Central Head.

A guaranty fund commission composed of seven or eight members to be chosen from the state bankers of Nebraska to replace the present state banking department as regards control of the state guaranty fund was recommended by Dan J. Riley, of Dawson, Neb., president of the Nebraska bankers' association speaking to the Kiwanis club at its regular weekly luncheon at the chamber of commerce Friday noon.

Mr. Riley also recommended that the receiverships of failed banks be placed under one central head. At present there are fifty-one different receivers for banks in Nebraska. He estimated the saving from that source would be between $200,000 to $500,000.

Eight million dollars has been paid into the fund by state bankers, according to his figures, $5,700,000 of which has been paid out. There is, in round numbers, $2,333,000 in the fund. Only $422,000 was recovered from the banks which failed, the speaker asserted.

By the plan proposed by Mr. Riley, the commission would have the opportunity of examining banks.

Other plans which have been advanced were discussed by Mr. Riley, one of which was the withdrawal of time and interest bearing deposits from the protection of the fund. He declared that if the deposits bearing interest were removed fifty-four per cent of the deposits of the state would be without the protection.

Deferred payments to depositors of banks which have failed would lead to a more careful selection of banks when depositing money than at present, Mr. Riley contended. One of the criticisms of the present system, according to the speaker, was that people took too little care in choosing their banker, knowing that they would be paid from the fund should the bank fail.

Seventy-five per cent of the banks which have failed have paid over 4 per cent interest on time deposits, Mr. Riley stated.

Alabama Police Seize 650 Cases Of Rye Whisky

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 19.—A carload of 650 cases of rye whisky enroute from Trenton, Ga., to the Brunswick Drug company, Los Angeles, Cal., was seized by police in the railway yards here today.

Police immediately turned the shipment over to federal prohibition authorities.

To Send Carload Of Clothing to Volga District

Clothing that will be sent to the Volga district in Russia is being collected by the American Volga Relief society of Lincoln. The society hopes to secure a carload of wearing material to be sent in the near future. Articles will be called for or may be sent to John Rohrig, 335 South Eighth street. B-1374.

Sloan's Real Name Nicholas Trainer

DENVER, Jan. 19.—Burial of the slain mint bandit was held up today when police announced they had obtained unofficial information that J. C. Sloan was only an alias and that the man's real name was Nicholas Trainer. The latter identification was made by the federal bureau of identification at Leavenworth, Kan., according to Captain of Detectives Rinker.

Mussolini Makes Demand for Speed

ROME, Jan. 19.—Premier Mussolini's government is one of speed. Speaking yesterday to members of the chauffeur's union, whom he addressed as "fellow chauffeurs," as he drives his own car, he said:

"This is a day of movement. Everyone must increase his gait, in office and in factory."

Rout Opposition, Increase Budget

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Routing all opposition, including the house leadership, the rivers and harbors block today overrode both the budget estimate and the appropriations committee and increased the waterways item in the army bill from $37,000,000 to $6,585,000.

LADY COOK IS DEAD.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Lady Cook, who was formerly Miss Tennessee Claflin of New York, widow of Sir Francis Cook, died in London last night, it was announced today.

Coast Police Chief Denies Army Man Release From Jail

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 19.—Civil and military authorities clashed today over the detention of Captain Louis L. Jacobs, Camp Kearny army surgeon, in connection with the death of pretty Fritzi Mann, oriental dancer, when Chief of Police Patrick point blank refused to release the captain in custody of his superior officers.

The request for Captain Jacobs' release came from Major Cohen, commanding officer of Camp Kearny. Immediately upon learning of Patrick's action, Captain Jacobs instructed his attorney to start proceedings for his release on a writ of habeas corpus.

ANOTHER WAY TO REACH RAILROAD

Bill to Tax Extra Width Right Of Way As Agricultural Land.

Osterman Launches New Plan For Dealing With Union Pacific.

A bill which would class all land in the Union Pacific railroad right of way through Nebraska, where it exceeds 200 feet in width, as agricultural acreage and tax it upon that basis, in addition to the taxes otherwise paid by the railroad company, was introduced Friday in the Nebraska house by Representative Osterman of Merrick county and several others.

Mr. Osterman is the author of an act passed several years ago providing for forfeiture of the right of eminent domain by the Union Pacific for failure to make its right of way uniform in width through each county traversed by its line.

His measures are aimed at a condition existing in Merrick and other counties, where the Union Pacific sold the alternate sections adjacent to its right of way, allotted to it by congressional grant, and deeded away everything except a 200-foot strip, while it claims a 400-foot right of way through the other section which were homesteaded by settlers.

This created a series of jogs in the right of way, the ownership of which has long been in dispute between the farmers and the railroad company. It is the tracts projecting out in this manner which Osterman proposes to classify and tax as agricultural land.

Would Cut Down Legislature.

Two constitutional amendments are suggested by Mr. Hardin in bills offered Friday, one to reduce the membership of the legislature from 100 to 50 in the house and from 33 to 18 in the senate, the other to cut the pay of members in a regular session from $500 to $600.

Mr. Smith offered a bill to tax cigarets and their "makin's" and turn the proceeds into the state general fund. The rates of tax fixed are On packages weighing not more than 3 pounds per thousand, 1 mill for each cigaret; on heavier packages, 2 mills, on packages of cigaret papers, 1 cent for first 50 and half a cent for each additional fifty; on tubes, 1 cent per fifty.

Representatives of all counties comprised in the Tenth judicial district and of Clay county, also, are joint introducers of a bill to put Clay county back into the Seventh district, where it formerly was, and do away with one of the two judges in the Tenth.

Another bill cutting automobile license fees in two, as recommended by Governor Bryan, has been introduced by Messrs. O'Malley and Regan.

U. P. WITHDRAWS ITS OPPOSITION

Will Not Fight Control of Central By Southern Pacific If Condition Met.

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Opposition of the Union Pacific railroad to continued control of the Central Pacific system by the Southern Pacific was conditionally withdrawn today during arguments in the case before the interstate commerce commission.

"If a proposed traffic arrangement between the two systems for through routing of freight on favorable conditions via the Ogden line of the Central Pacific can be put into effect, H. A. Scandrett, counsel for the Union Pacific, informed the commission, his client would have no interest in urging the separation of the Central Pacific from the Southern Pacific which the supreme court has ordered.

State Senator Thomas B. Osborne of Bayard, and Mrs. C. S. Paine will be the speakers at the weekly meeting of the Democratic Saturday Noon Luncheon club at the Grand hotel Saturday noon.

REPORT OF REVOLT.

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 19.—A revolutionary movement is reported by the border correspondents of Argentine and Uruguayan newspapers to have broken out in the state of Rio Grande Do Sul, Brazil. Dispatches from Rio Janerio declare the reports are unfounded.

NATIONAL COLORS NOW IN EVIDENCE

Governor Says Red, White and Blue Cannot Escape Notice.

Situation Calls For Action Upon Part Of Legislators.

"When the state's financial affairs are in the red to the amount of $225,000, with the tax payers being oiled white, and the voters expressing themselves until the air is blue in their vicinity, it is time for the state officers to take hold of the steering wheel, and I feel sure the legislature will open up the road."

This was Governor Bryan's comment in a general way, Friday morning, on the need for general changes in state governmental affairs, as expressed in his budget message.

Sketching over the various provisions, the governor asserted that anyone who supports the present bovine tuberculosis eradication program must, of necessity, support the ship subsidy, or the high tariff, or a plan whereby premiums paid for state hail insurance should be refunded and a general levy made to cover the cost of losses.

The present system, he said, does not effectively eradicate the disease, but checker-boards the state, and leaves certain phases of the stock industry totally unprotected. His proposal of a bill of health for each animal sold, secured at the the expense of the seller will rid the state of the disease in a few years, and eliminate practically all of the appropriation expense, he said.

The outgoing governor paid him compliment said Mr. Bryan, in recommending that the appropriation for the finance department, which is more or less closely connected and directly under the chief executive's control, be reduced from $83,000 to $62,000. He also referred to the fact that two of the people employed by the finance department are drawing their salaries from the public works department, and to a bill for $27, said to be presented to another code department by the highway department, for pulling a car out of the ditch.

"Why, we can pull the whole code department out of the ditch for less than $27," he remarked.

He also called attention to a paragraph in his message, where he quotes the governor's statuory power to discontinue any code department, but added that his recommendations covered this matter fully. No specific bills will be introduced by the governor, Mr. Bryan said to carry out his recommendations unless members introduce no measure along the same general lines.

Report Mission On Way to Great Britain

LONDON, Jan. 19.—An Essen dispatch to the Times declared today the German government was sending a confidential mission here to request Great Britain to lend her services in composing the Ruhr differences. Another report reiterated Italy was desirous of effecting a settlement between France and Germany.

Officials here profess to see little hope for success for a mediation plan at this time.

The Times' correspondent at Essen says the temper of the Ruhr valley population is worse than at any time during the week of occupation.

Alleged Flogger Given Freedom

HOUSTON, Texas, Jan. 19—Another effort to place responsibility for the merciless flogging of Mrs. R. H. Harrison, pretty 30-year-old wid w and R. H. Armand, several weeks ago at Goose Creek, will be made by the state today when the second suspect arrested in connection with the case is taken before the Harris county jury here, which is investigating the affair. The arrest of this man followed closely the exoneration of the first man arrested, Claude Buckley, by the grand jury.

Black Eyes When Deputies Adjourn

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Blackened eyes and swollen lips were in evidence in the chamber of deputies today as reminders of last night's stormy session when the chamber, after one of the liveliest scenes in its history, voted to suspend parliamentary immunity of Marcel Cachin, the communist member.

Farm Credits Half Complete

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Half of the farm credits program was completed by the senate today when it passed the Capper bill providing for co-operative credit associations and other measures for long time loans to farmers.

ALLEGED MINE RIOTERS FREED

All Defendants In the Herrin Massacre Trial Acquitted By Jury After More Than 24 Hours Deliberation.

JURORS DELIBERATE TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

Venire Retires at 11:15 Thursday Morning and the Foreman Declares That Between Fifteen and Twenty Ballots Taken Before Decision Reached.

(Associated Press.)

MARION, Ill., Jan. 19.—All defendants in the Herrin riots trial acquitted.

James Weaver, one of the jurors said that between fifteen and twenty ballots were taken before the verdict was reached.

The jury, which retired at 11:15 o'clock yesterday morning, deliberated for twenty-seven hours before arriving at its decision.

The crowd pouring from the court room after the verdicts were read, quickly filled the square, but there was no sign of any demonstration. Many persons gathered about the jurors congratulating them while the defendants hurried to their homes.

Men Not Guilty.

MARION, Ill., Jan. 19.—All five defendants in the Herrin riots trial were found not guilty by a jury of twelve Williamson county farmers at 1:55 p. m. today.

The verdicts were read in the following order:

Leva Mann, Joe Carnaghi, Peter Hiller, Burt Grace and Otis Clark. All of them are union miners except Peter Hiller, who is a taxi driver. The courtroom was crowded when the verdict was read but there was no sign of a demonstration of any kind.

VESPER CONCERTS PROVE POPULAR

Programs at City Auditorium By Lincoln Musicians Very Successful.

Finest Talent Volunteers Services For Sunday Afternoon Programs.

"It's a good thing for Lincoln and her citizens."

That's what Dr. Benjamin F. Bailey said in commenting on the free Vesper Matinee concerts given under the auspices of the board of education and the musical faculty of the city schools. Then he added, "Lincoln appreciates these concerts. The large attendance at the first numbers shows this. The musicians taking part in these concerts are rendering the people of Lincoln a distinctive service. The very finest of local musical talent may now be heard by laboring men, employes in shops and factories and others, all free. I have heard nothing but the most favorable comments on the series."

These and many other complimentary remarks have been called forth by the announcement that the third concert in the free vesper matinee concert series will be given in the Lincoln high school auditorium on Sunday, January 21, at 3 o'clock. The Lincoln high school boys' glee club and the high school girls' glee club, under the direction of H. O. Ferguson musical director of the city schools, will be assisted by the prominent local soloist, Lillian Heiple Polley and Koby Sirinsky, violinist.

"These concerts are one of the finest things the musical department has put across in years," declared Mrs. May Morley, principal of the Prescott school. C. L. Culler, principal of the Whittier junior high school, commenting on the concert, said, "Our patrons are all delighted with them. We hope that some of these fine concerts may be given in the new junior high school auditorium as soon as it is completed."

"We have had the very best attendance and the audiences have been demonstrative in their show of appreciation," declared Homer P. Shepherd, principal of the Lincoln high school.

"They remind me of the White Sparrow Concert chorus in Des Moines," said B. E. Dill, now at 2227 Sewell street. "The White Sparrow Concert series," he declared, "is given free each week in one of the large auditoriums in Des Moines and the people of Des Moines crowd the auditorium every Sunday."

The High School Glee clubs and the local soloists are certain to be greeted by enthusiastic appreciative audiences in the third vesper matinee concert series to be held in the high school auditorium on Sunday afternoon, January 21 at 3 o'clock. Managers of many of Lincoln's business concerns have announced these concerts to their employes and have urged them to take advantage of the opportunity to attend.

OMAHANS MAY BID ON HOTELS

Reported That Managers of The Paxton Likely to Make Offer for Nebraska Building and Investment Properties.

Well authenticated rumors that Ralph Kitchen and son Richard Kitchen of Omaha, now managers of the Paxton hotel in Omaha, would be the next bidders on the properties of the Nebraska Building and Investment company including the lease on the Fontenelle hotel in Omaha and the Lincoln hotel and annex site in Lincoln, were circulating in Lincoln Friday.

F. B. Baylor, trustee in bankruptcy for the companies, was in Omaha Friday according to his law office and employes in the trustee's office refused to comment upon the report of an offer from the Kitchens. The possibility that Mr. Baylor had gone to Omaha to investigate or to consider some such offer was discounted, however, by the evident feelings by those in close touch with him that all bids at this time are premature and out of place since he has not yet offered the properties for sale.

The Eppley offer of $800,000 cash for all the properties in reality has opened the bidding on the hotels.

Rome Miller, who may have bought the Fontenelle lease from the old directors for $215,000 may also be a bidder for the entire properties or for the Fontenelle and the Lincoln. The trustee has not yet indicated when he will be ready to ask for bids on the properties but he is not yet in possession and it may be his intention to wait until he is.

Rail Crossings Take Attention Of Commission

A formal hearing was held by the state railway commission at the capitol Friday morning, on the complaint filed by Representative Henry Bock of Butler county against the Northwestern railroad, concerning what is said to be a dangerous underground crossing just east of David City.

Quick action was secured by the commission from the Burlington, in relieving the car shortage affecting the shipping of seed potatoes from the Alliance territory. A complaint was filed on the fifteenth and on the seventeenth of January Mr. Taylor wired an Alliance shipper that twenty-five cars had been started, and that Hemingford was being furnished cars at the rate of from 12 to 16 a day.

Congressman-elect John H. Morehead filed an informal complaint with the commission, by letter, Friday, Falls City "has been afflicted" for years by two bad Missouri Pacific crossings, says the former governor, and he wants the commissioners to come down and look the situation over. Mr. Randall and Engineer B. Forbes will probably go to Falls City.

H. M. Cockerill of Richfield, who made a complaint January 17, against the Rock Island for not providing adequate cattle shipping facilities, has been told that the matter will be investigated immediately.

The commission formally organized Thursday by re-electing H. G. Taylor as president. He is the oldest member in point of service, having served on the body for nine years. Thorne Browne has been commissioner for two years, serving four years previously as secretary, while C. A. Randall was elected this fall. John E. Curtiss was re-elected secretary of the commission.

FATE OF WHOLE FAMILY SEALED BY DEATH GANG

Witness In Reign of Terror Probe at Bastrop Says Was Told "Entire Daniel Family" Would Be Wiped Out of Existence.

NAMES PERSON WHO MADE STATEMENT

Much of Morning Session Devoted to Disappearance of Southern Carbon Company Employe Who Escaped From Alleged Kidnapers.

BASTROP, La., Jan. 19.—William J. McDonald, 60 brother-in-law of J. L. Daniel, father of Watt Daniel, who with T. F. Richard, was kidnapped near here August 24, and whose mutilated bodies were found in Lake La Fourche last month, testified at the open hearing into the activities of masked men in Morehouse parish today that "Jap" Jones had told him the "whole damned Daniel family" would be "cleaned out," before the alleged attempt to assassinate Dr. P. M. McKoin was settled.

McDonald said Jones did not know that he was related to the Daniel family and that after he became aware aware of it he asked him to forget it.

"Jones said 'we are going to clean out the whole damned Daniel family' before this thing is settled'," McDonald said. "He did not seem to realize that I was related to the Daniel family. I called his hand and he told me I needn't get so mad about it. I told him Dr. McKoin was never shot at."

Henry Jones of near Bastrop, said he formerly was employed by the Southern Carbon company at Spyker and he knew many of the old employes.

He was interrogated concerning the disappearance of Harold Teegerstrom, timekeeper at the plant, who was reported to have been kidnaped and later to have escaped from his captors.

"Did you know Harold Teegerstrom?"

Broke From Captors.

"Yes, he left the plant on a Friday night and he came to my house on Sunday evening. I was on the back porch when I heard some one in the house. I found Teegerstrom in the front. He said he had been bothered a great deal by United States detectives at the plant about the kidnaping. He said that on Friday night a man called him out of the office and told him he wanted to talk with him. The man took him to an automobile, which he said had several men inside, and he grew suspicious and broke away and ran. That is the reason he gave me for hiding out. He changed clothes, put on my hat and shoes and overcoat to change his identity and left in two hours."

"Have you received anything from him?"

"Yes, I got my watch which I loaned him because his watch had his initial on it. It came in the mail. Before he left he gave me his watch to be sent to his brother and some keys to be sent to the carbon plant."

"It appeared to you he was trying to make his getaway and was trying to shield his identity?"

"That's right."

Harding Wishes Free State Well

DUBLIN, Jan. 19.—The Freeman's Journal today prints a message from the president of the United States. It follows:

"President Harding on behalf of the American government expresses the sincere hope that the people of the Irish Free states, to whom long standing ties of kinship and affection bind so many Americans, may enjoy the blessings of peace, prosperity and happiness."

Grain Dealer Is Killed By Auto

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Howard E. Jackson one of the best known members of the Chicago Board of Trade and an official of the United States Grain corporation during the war, was killed by an automobile in front of his home in Sheridan road early today.

Mr. Jackson was struck by a machine driven by Carl Kaufman, an interior decorator.

Miss Lucille Gray, who was crossing the street with Jackson at the time of the accident, fainted.

Kaufman was held on a charge of assault with an automobile.

How Would You Like to Sample This Delicacy

LUXOR, Egypt, Jan. 19.—What is believed to be the oldest specimen of canned beef in the world was discovered by excavators in the tomb of King Tutenkhamun.

While it was not wholly palatable, being 3,350 years old, the meat is in an excellent state of preservation.

The meat had been embalmed and contained in elliptical receptacles resembling huge Easter eggs, forty of which were removed from the tomb amid deep interest of a crowd of tourists.

Tommorrow—The doors are thrown open on Lincoln's greatest shoe clearance. The C. & F has always been known as a quality shoe store—the lease has been lost and these high grade shoes must be sacrificed regardless of cost. Remember Saturday 9 a. m. 1107 O St.—Adv.

Divorce Decree Entered.—A decree awarding Eva May Dummond a divorce from Ernest J. Dummond has been entered in district court. The parties were married in 1914. Mrs. Dummond has four children by a former husband.

Gross Gives Bond—William H. Heskett and John J. Gross both of College View were brought before U. S. Commissioner H. J. Whitmore Thursday afternoon on charges of violating the national prohibition act. Their bonds were fixed at $1,000 each. Gross gave bond but Heskett was committed to jail.

Draws Stiff Fine.—R. Brown 1425 North Twenty-seventh street was fined $30.70 in police court Friday morning on a charge of speeding. Oficer Major Gross who made the arrest testified that Brown was going forty-six miles an hour. Brown said he thought he was going about twenty-five miles an hour.

Admits Charge.—H. R. Norton, 943 G street, paid a fine of $9.70 in police court Friday morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and disturbing the peace. It was alleged that he assaulted G. H. Shriner, 1985 S street, a taxi driver, on January 13, near the Burlington depot following an argument. Norton is also a taxi driver

Wants Divorce.—Ruth Lowrey, of Roca, has filed a petition in district court against George D Lowrey for divorce. They were married in 1912 and have three children. Cruelty and non-support are charged. Mrs Lowrey declares her husband has threatened to kill her. She taught school to support herself and children, it is stated.

Asks for Administrator.—Edward S. Fisher, of Lincoln, filed a petition in county court Thursday for appointment of an administrator of the estate of his brother, the late Joseph W. Fisher, who died in Denver, Colo., January 2. He is survived by a widow, whose address is unknown to the petitioner, his mother, sister and three brothers.

Boys Fined on Liquor Charge. — Harry Perkins, 17, 446 North Fourteenth street and Calvan Robbins, 18, 2315 Q street, pleaded guilty in police court Friday morning charged of illegal posssion and transportation of liquor. The boys were each fined $100 and costs by Judge Chappell. They were arrested at the Burlington depot by Officer Beal Thursday night. Officers said that the pair had just come in from Omaha with the liquor

Dismiss Suit On Notes.—The suit in district court here of Fred Spethman and John Roth against C. H. Swallow for $5,893.32 on twelve promissory notes has been dismissed by the plaintiffs.

Suit for Maintenance.—Alma L. Stewart has filed a petition in district court against Clarence M. Stewart for separate maintenance. They were married in Lincoln, September 27, 1916, and have three children. Cruelty is charged.

Fined Under Traffic Law.—Harry Goldstein pleaded guilty Friday morning before Police Judge E. Chappell, to a charge of violating the traffic ordinance by turning around in the middle of the block. He paid a fine of $9.70.

Dismiss Two Suits—Elmer B. Stephenson, trustee, has dismissed two suits in district court based on promissory notes. One was against William Lemke for $720 and the other against Vetern S. Barkey for $70. The notes were given for stock of the Patriot Motors company. Several Lincoln business men loaned the company $38,000 and took these and other notes.

Three Small Fires.—The fire department made a run to the Brown Betty, 1720 South Seventeenth street, where some rags in the basement had caught fire. Another run was made to 329 H street, where a wood shed burned. The department responded to a call from 1820 Prospect street where a chimney was burning out but no damage was done.

Dismisses Application.—J. Lloyd McMaster's application for a writ of mandamus to compel Lincoln city officials to submit the proposed amendment to give the city authority to establish a municipal coal yard has been dismissed by the plaintiff. The suit was filed several months ago, but the proposition was voted upon before the matter could be finally disposed of in the courts.

"Square Deal" Lobbyist.—Joseph Burns of Lincoln has enrolled himself upon the secretary of state's lobby register under the descriptive phrase of "Square deal for the common people." Mr. Burns in interested in water power, electric light and telephone matters from the standpoint of "pro bono publico" and is also affiliated with the local and state taxpayers' league. C. E. Beadle of Wahoo is registered as an agent for the taxpayers' association of Saunders county.

Want Permit for Station. — The Clover coal company has applied to the city commission for permission to install a gasoline filling station at 905 South Twenty-seventh street. This is in what would be F street if opened through. The request explains that the appearance and safety of the territory will be improved by the proposed filling station which will set back from the lot line some distance and will open from Twenty-seventh street. The city council has for a long time refused permission for more filling stations on Twenty-seventh street. A blue print was attached to the application which was signed by T. F. Horn and M. E. Serat.

Yousen Rearrested.— After being acquitted with Jay Cohen on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, David Yousen was rearrested by Constable Ira L. Vorhies on a similar charge. Both men were found not guilty by a jury in Justice W. T. Stevens' court Thursday afternoon. It was charged that they had received $25 from the Lincoln Pure Butter company in payment for some advertising in a directory of business men friendly to organized labor that they were publishing. The new complaint charges Yousen with receiving $25 from the Robert's Sanitary dairy for advertising in the alleged directory. Yousen pleaded not guilty to the new charge an d was released on a $300 bond. The case will be tried before a jury Friday afternoon.

PATE AT HEAD OF STATE TEACHERS

PART PAYMENT OF TAXES PERMITTED

Treasurers Can Collect Only 75 Percent of Burlington's Assessment.

Railroad to Carry Fight Against 1922 Taxes to Highest Court.

The Burlington railroad is permitted to pay 75 per cent of its 1922 taxes to the county treasurers and the latter are enjoined from collecting the remaining 25 per cent in an order issued by Federal Judges, Lewis, Munger and Woodrough, January 16 in the case against William H. Osborne, state tax commissioner, and seventy-two county treasurers. The railroad was denied a temporary injunction by the three judges sitting in Omaha several weeks ago, and about a week were denied a rehearing.

The order was issued pending the appeal of the case to the United States supreme court which the Burlington is making. Fourteen errors are cited in their asignment of errors in not allowing them an injunction to prohibit the state ax commissioner and county from collecting the full 1922 taxes. The required $450.00 bond for the appeal has been furnished by the plaintiff.

Sixty-five per cent of its taxes has been tendered county treasurers by the railroad, which in most instances has been refused. This act relieves the plaintiff from paying interest on delinquent taxes. The court's action will make the railroad immune from condemnation proceedings.

The three judges denied the application for a temporary injunction on the grounds that the railroad had an adequate remedy at law in an appeal to the Nebraska supreme court which they failed to make within the time limit specified by law.

"THE CIRCLE" AT THE ORPHEUM MONDAY NIGHT.

Local theatregoers can look forward to one of the most unique evenings ever spent in the theatre when the Selwyns' excellent comedy "The Circle" comes to the Orpheum Monday, January 22. Somerset Maugham's play is conceded by critics to be the best comedy that New York has seen in years and the Selwyns have selected a galaxy of stars to present the piece here that would make a Rockefeller complain of extravagance. In the cast are to be found the names of that sterling actor, Wilton Lackaye, the ever popular Henry E. Dixey, loveable Amelia Bingham, the young emotional star Charlotte Walker, and Norman Hackett. "The Circle" ran for a year at the Haymarket theatre, London, one year in Paris, and last season was the outstanding hit of New York at the Selwyn theatre. On account of the extreme importance of the engagement it would be wise for those desiring reservations to send in their orders by mail. The play is mounted in the elaborate manner that is so characteristic of the Selwyn plays.

SHOWS INCREASE IN LAMBS AND SHEEP ON FEED

Nebraska Second in Corn Belt States—Indications Point to Good Year.

Nebraska had 697 000 lambs and sheep on feed Jan. 1 as compared to 7672.000 head. Dec. 1 and 556,000 head a year ago according to estimates released today by A. E. Anderson of the Division of Crop and Live Stock Estimates Nebraska marketed 145.00 fat lambs and sheep during December, and received 60,000 at feeding stations in addition to those driven to feed lots at Omaha. The report for all states shows a 30 per cent increase over Jan. 1. 1922, due largely to a 40 per cent increase in western irrigated sections. Since the supply on feed during the first four months of 1922 was greatly under that of 1921 the present supply is not expected to vary much from that of 1921.

The two principal feeding areas of the country are the corn belt states and the western irrigated region. There is an increase of 40 per cent in the number of sheep and lambs on feed in the latter over Jan. 1, 1922. On Dec 1, the increase was 25 per cent compared to December 1, 1921. For the Corn Belt states the area west of the Mississippi river is estimated at 11 per cent above Jan 1 1922 and the area east, at 14 per cent as compared to an increase of 10 per cent on Dec 1 1922 above Dec. 1 1921 for both areas. Of the Corn Belt states, Illinois shows the largest increase over Jan 1 1922 being 20 per cent; Nebraska, 25 per cent and Michigan and Wisconsin 20 per cent.

In the western irrigated region Colorado shows an additional increase due to the continued movement of feeders during December Colorado had 1 500 000 sheep and lambs on feed, Jan 1 1923 compared to 1 000 00 a year ago They are distributed as follows 1 175.000 in Northern Colorado 275.000 in the Arkansas valley and 50.00 in the San Luis Valley While fat stock has been moving freely from Utah there appears to be nearly twice as many on feed as a year ago. Idaho is estimated as having 15 per cent more than on Jan. 1. 1922 with Pacific coast buyers seeking supplies there

A total of 145.000 fat sheep and lambs were marketed from Nebraska during December as compared to 121 000 a year ago During the same period 60 000 sheep and lambs were shipped into feeding stations as compared to 46.000 the previous December, in addition to those driven out from Omaha to feed lots The number of sheep and lambs in Nebraska feed lots on Jan 1 was as follows: Scottsbluff section 150.000 compared to 110.000 a year ago; Platte valley 280.00; Douglas county 70.000; Hum-boldt, Neb, 30.000 and 29,000 a year ago, other sections not included above, 167,000.

According to expressed intentions of corn belt feeders 45 per cent of the number on hand, Jan. 1 will be marketed during that month, 28 per cent in February and the balance in March or later The movement out of the irrigated region while starting in January will not be in large volume before Feb. 1, and as most western feeders have confidence in the future market, it is thought the supply will move in fairly orderly volume.

Although present estimates indicate a large increase over Jan 1 1922 attention is called to the fact that sheep and lamb feeding was on a much restricted scale a year ago due to unprofitable outcome of the previous years operations and to the financial situation which made the securing of funds difficult Present indications are, that the supply of finished stock during the first four months of 1923 will approximate that of the same period in 1921. Furthermore, economic conditions are better, and as the ability of the consumer to buy is often as important a factor in futures as the supply this should also receive due consideration

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have

You will find too all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous glossy silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. —Advertisement.

HOUSE REFUSES ITS SUPPORT FOR FRANK MONDELL

Resolution Endorsing Appointment of Wyoming Man For Cabinet Job Turned Down.

Lower Branch Follows Lead of Senate—Not Properly a Legislative Matter.

By unanimous vote, the representative diet Friday morning followed the state senate's action on Thursday in refusing to adopt a resolution endorsing Congressman Frank Mondell of Wyoming, recently defeated candidate for United States senator, for appointment as secretary of the interior in President Harding's cabinet when Secretary Fall goes out on March 4.

Messrs. Broome and Beushausen, democrats, and Lamb, republican, did the business with their oratorical hatchets, or, rather, hammers. Each of them assailed the resolution, while nobody spoke for it. The introducer, Mr. Barbour, was not in his seat at the time it was discussed and voted upon.

The fact was learned that the proposal to indorse Mondell originated in a telegram from Washington, where his friends are laying wires in his behalf. A few days ago the republican members of the Nebraska delegation in congress passed a resolution indorsing him, and they wanted the legislature to back them up at home.

Resolution is Ridiculed.

"I can see in my fancy the government's letter carriers going up Pennsylvania avenue in Washington to deliver vast quantities of mail at the White house" said Mr. Broome, the first speaker: "When this resolution is fished out of the mass handed to the president, it will no doubt work a miraculous cure of his indisposition.

"Were Mr. Mondell the only repudiated statesman the g. o. p. has I should say nothing against indorsing him. But there are many other lame ducks who are saying in their daily prayers: 'I know that my redeemer liveth.' Why should we slight them or show favoritism?

"Mr. Mondell is a politician who has demonstrated his great ability in manipulating the congressional machine at Washington. But the people of Nebraska have lately shown their hostility toward machine government and the membership of this house, independent and unbossed as it is, should bear that fact in mind. I, for one, would not wish to go before the voters of my district again and have it said that I made no protest against the indorsement of this machine politician."

Out of Place in Legislature.

"This is a partisan question and the proper place for it would be in a republican caucus," declared Mr. Beushausen. "The democrats should not be asked to vote on it."

Beushausen quoted from a letter written by Theodore Roosevelt when he was president denouncing Congressman Mondell as a reactionary and a tool of the oil interests.

"He is also one of the men who helped to fasten upon this country the worst robber tariff it ever had," continued the Sherman county member. He concluded with a motion to kill the resolution.

Before the vote was taken, Mr. Lamb broke into the discussion by saying:

"I deny that this is a partisan question. I'm against it just as much as any democrat is. The people have sent us here to use some horse sense, and it is no part of our business to O. K. indiscriminately propositions that we know nothing about."

PROF. IVEY GIVEN INDEFINITE LEAVE

Will Devote His Entire Time to Extension Work In Salesmanship.

Prof. Paul W. Ivey, of the college of business administration, University of Nebraska, has been given an indefinite leave of absence, at his own request, without salary to take effect in the near future, according to an announcement from Chancellor Avery Friday. Salary for the present year will be adjusted so that he will receive a half year's stipend upon completing a half year's work. Professor Ivey's return to the university will be conditioned on new arrangements between him and board of regents. This arrangement leaves Professor Ivey in exactly the same status as Prof. C. W. Wallace, who for a number of years has been on an indefinite leave of absence without salary.

When Professor Ivey entered the university a few years ago it was understood that part of his work should be extension work with the chambers of commerce and other business organizations. His work in this was so successful that he began to receive calls from out of the state for evenings, week-ends and other times that he would give to this work without interferring with his regular university teaching. His reputation extended so that these calls became so numerous that he has decided to ask for an indefinite leave of absence that he may devote all his time to what might be termed extension work in salesmanship and for which chambers of commerce and others are anxious to provide classes on such a basis as to make him a very satisfactory financial return for his services.

Courses in marketing, salesmanship and advertising have been given by Professor Ivey at the university. He has also conducted night classes in some of these subjects. He is author of books on all three subjects, the latest being one on marketing.

HOUSE BILLS.

H. R. No. 178, by Osterman and others—Declaring all parts of railroad rights of way in excess of 200 feet in width agricultural lands and assessable, with exceptions relating to divers use of this extra land for side tracks, store houses and the like.

H. R. No. 179 by Gould and Miner—Providing for the appointment by the county board in each township of two persons, who with the township assessor, shall compose a local board of equalization, with power to make adjustments in taxation valuations; pay to be $4 a day and not more than $20.

H. R. No. 180, by Gould and Miner—By request—Allowing use of county road dragging fund for graveling roads. Emergency.

H. R. No. 181, by Davis—Increasing from $500 to $800 the cost of bridge and road improvements that county boards may contract for or do themselves without a public letting to lowest and best bidder.

Humboldt Plans Big Extension of Its Sewer System

HUMBOLDT, Neb., Jan. 19.—At a meeting of the city council an extensive sewerage project was inaugurated for this city, estimated to cost $30,000 when complete. As planned, it will accommodate the entire residence portion of the city, and will in no way connect or interfere with the system already established in the business section. Two principal mains will be laid in Nims street on the east and in Long Branch street on the west, with lateral connections on every east and west street.

Coming Events

Regular meeting of the Maple Grove No. 25 Woodmen Circle in Walsh hall, 141 South Twelfth street, Friday evening.

Lincoln Homestead No. 3200 will hold a short business meeting at 7:30 p. m. Friday at 1133 M street. The meeting will be followed by dancing and refreshments.

L. C. Oberlies of the state board of control will speak at Asbury church in West Lincoln Sunday evening at 7:30.

HOW TO KEEP WELL ALL WINTER

HARRISON HOME GUARDS ON ALERT

Floggers of Rail Strikers Prepared for Rumored Impending Attack.

(International News Service.)

HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 19.—Alert, lest they be caught napping, the home guard today was awake to any impending attack from railroad strikers in retaliation for the hanging of E. C. Gregor and whipping of others in the railroad arson plot.

The entire community was on its guard as rumors flashed about the city this morning that two mobs were on their way to this city to avenge by violence the action of the "citizens' committee" and the "court of twelve men" which has been sitting in judgment of the strikers.

Although not over-alarmed at the reports, the citizens and guards set their jaws and kept their guns in readiness for action. The same determination that led them to the mobbing of Gregor and the flogging of others held up resolutely today that train service shall not be disrupted again on the Missouri North Arkansas railroad.

The cases against the strikers are being planned carefully. The citizens reiterated their denial that strikers' wives were molested or that there had been any recklessness on the part of the investigators.

FUNDING EXPERTS SAILING FOR HOME

Negotiations For Payment of British Debt Temporarily Postponed.

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Negotiations for refunding the British debt to the United States were in obeyance today with the British debt commission in New York preparing to sail for London tomorrow to lay before the British cabinet the American viewpoint on the problem.

British Ask Patience.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The return from Washington of the Baldwin financial mission without having effected a settlement of the British debt is disappointing, the Daily Express says today. It continues:

"If America is so unreasonable in her demands as to make it impossible for us to liquidate our obligation without causing widespread suffering in this country, affairs must wait until Washington is more amenable or until the state of the world's money market improves."

Starts Move to Right An Alleged Wrong to Solon

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 19.—Removal of the stigma placed upon the name of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette by upwards of 300 members of the University of Wisconsin faculty, who signed a round robin in February, 1918, condemning his war record, was proposed in a joint resolution offered in the senate today by State Senator S. A. Huber of Dane county.

The resolution asserts many members of the faculty "were induced to sign the document under duress and intimidation and now desire the wrong done to Senator La Follette be effaced from public records."

Reports Hand of Peace Extended In Irish Trouble

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Lord Glenavy, chairman of the Irish Free State senate, has approached the government of northern Ireland with a view to effecting a union of the north and south, says a Belfast dispatch to the Central News. The correspondent declares that leading Ulster citizens have received letters from prominent supporters of the Free State government urging the north to come in the hope that the strife between the two factions might thereby be ended.

Opinion in Belfast inclines to the belief that the advances are not likely to bear fruit, the dispatch adds.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S. since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-invoker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peaky, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

Hold Watchman Responsible for Southern Wreck

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—An engine watchman named Smith was held responsible today by the interstate commerce commission for a collision between a passenger train and a light engine on the Southern Pacific lines at Humble, Texas, on December 13, resulting in the death of twenty-two persons and the injury of eleven.

According to the commission's report, Smith moved the engine from the point at which it had been left in his charge and in some manner yet undetermined, it came out on the main track and was struck by an east-bound passenger train.

SAY SUGGESTIONS ARE PROPAGANDA

U. S. Government Will Not Consider Cancelling Part of Debt.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—While viewing the European situation with undisguised apprehension, and sincerely desirous of seeing a settlement of the reparations controversy, this government will not consider even for an instant any settlement plan that is based in whole or in part on cancellation of any of the $11,000,000,000 owed the United States by foreign nations.

This flat announcement was made at the state department here today in response to cable reports from abroad that French experts were engaged in drawing up a new repa-$11,000,000,000 owed the United tial cancellation of the British debt by the United States.

If the French experts are preparing such a plan for presentation by the French government, they might as well conserve their efforts, for they are being expended uselessly, it was said officially.

One official observed that it "should not be necessary to inform Europe more than once a day that the United States does not intend to cancel a dollar of the indebtedness."

Officials were inclined more to amusement than irritation over the latest suggestion. Periodically such suggestions are made regularly abroad. Washington officialdom has reached the stage where all such plans and stories are now considered "mere propaganda."

Alexander Hamilton Club Has Election

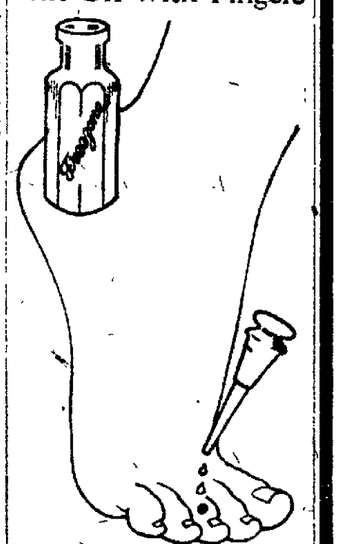

The Alexander Hamilton club held its regular meeting at a dinner at the Lincolnshire Thursday evening. Officers for the coming year were elected. Roy Bjorkman was named president; L. G. Rupert, vice-president, and Ward C. Betzer, secretary-treasurer.

Thorne Browne, of the state railway commission, addressed the club on the present railroad situation. He discussed the economic relationship of the public and the carriers, advising that relationship from normalcy, through the period of inflation down to the present. Mr. Browne expressed his hopes for cheaper freight rates, but pointed out the necessity of a general decline before any great relief could be expected. In presenting figures it was shown that in proportion with maintenance costs, freight rates are not out of line.

The executive committee appointed Edw. Steckley as chairman of the program committee for the year, with J. Hal Ducker and Harry Williams as his assistants. The next regular meeting of the club will be held Monday, February 12.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with the fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Advertisement.

Sore Throat or Mouth

You should keep the throat and mouth clean and healthy. Any disease that attacks the canal through which must pass the food we eat, the beverages we drink and the very air we breathe is a serious matter. Why neglect Sore Throat or Sore Mouth when TONSILINE makes it so easy for you to get relief? TONSILINE is especially prepared for that one purpose. TONSILINE does its full duty—you can depend upon it. Keep a bottle in the house—where you can get it quickly when needed. 35c, and 60c. Hospital Size, $1.00. Your druggist sells TONSILINE.

FRANCE PLANNING RHINELAND STATE

Said Step Will Be Taken If Germany Refuses Generous Indemnity Terms.

(International News Service.)

PARIS, Jan. 19.—France has drawn up a detailed plan for creating an independent, autonomous state out of the German Rhineland "if Germany refuses France's generous terms for an indemnity settlement," it was declared in official circles this afternoon.

The new state would include the Ruhr. It not only would be self-supporting, but would be capable of contributing to the reparations Germany was pledged to pay under the Versailles treaty. The French would expell all German state officials and issue "Rhineland republic money" under the auspices of the various Chambers of Commerce and secured by state-owned property.

French parliamentarians assured International News Service that France is willing to grant Germany generous moratorium terms, but only on condition that Germany admits her war guilt and reaffirms her pledges to carry out the treaty terms. France is willing furthermore, to make a "coal and iron entente."

The war guilt question was brought up by the semi-official newspaper Temps which published a letter from Premier Poincare to the president of the League of Rights of Men defending himself against political attacks and the accusation that he was partially responsible for the war.

M. Poincare's supporters in the chamber are urging the foreign affairs committee to insist that Germany be compelled to admit her war guilt and to renew her treaty pledges before there is any reparations agreement.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advertisement.

THREE NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENCY

Teachers In Session at Omaha Hear Numerous Addresses.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 19.—Miss Belle Ryan, assistant superintendent of the Omaha schools; Harry Raymund, superintendent of the Tekamah schools, and W. R. Pate, superintendent at Alliance were nominated here Tuesday for the presidency of the Nebraska state teachers' association at the opening meeting of the annual convention of the association. The delegates were addressed during the day by Dr. William Owen of Chicago president of the national education association, Commander J. Ed C. Fisher of the Nebraska department of the American legion, and James F. Lawrence, managing editor of The Lincoln Star.

Miss Mary Sweeney of the American home economics society, addressed the night session of the convention, emphasizing the importance of a child's early environment in shaping its preparations for the taking up of the burdens of later life. Superintendent W. H. Morton president of the association, in his annual address, declared that as educators, the teachers of Nebraska should lead in helpful suggestions of constructive remedies for existing conditions which should be changed.

RHODES NOW HEAD OF FIRE FIGHTERS

Beatrice Selected as the Next Meeting Place Of Volunteers.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Jan. 19.—The State Volunteer Firemen delegates in convention here elected the following officers:

President, O. W. Rhodes of Scottsbluff, first vice president, Lee Carey of York; second vice president, Rev. W. C. Rundin of Mitchell; secretary, A. G. Weibert of Kearney, treasurer, Frank Torin of Sidney; chaplain, Rev. Hass of Beatrice.

A close vote for the 1924 convention resulted in victory for Beatrice. The local Woman's club served a banquet to the delegates Friday afternoon.

The parade was several blocks long and many comic costumes and stunts were seen. A fire exhibit was held on the main streets. A board of control was selected as follows: Lennon, Pederson, Gerin, Pelton, Bartling.

Auto Damage Suit Tried at Fremont

(Associated Press.)

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 19.—In district court hearing of the automobile damage suit of George Mercer well known Fremont fireman against James and Paul Rogers is attracting much attention. All the parties involved are well known. The amount claimed is $1,600.

Mercer's wife was injured and his car badly damaged in a collision with a automobile driven by Paul Rogers in 1921 in Fremont. Paul Rogers is a son of James Rogers. The defense is endeavoring to show that the automobile did not belong to James Rogers and furthermore that the accident was caused by the plaintiff.

Indian Girl Sent Back to School

(Special to The Star.)

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 19.—Nellie Blackburn, a twelve-year-old Indian girl from the school at Genoa, was found wandering in the streets Wednesday night by county officials. Nellie spent the night at the county jail. It was learned by telephoning to the school at Genoa that she had started out to attend her grandmother's funeral at Walthill, with the expectation that relatives would meet her here. The relatives from Walthill somehow did not make connection to meet her in Fremont. Nellie was taken back to Genoa Thursday.

WYMORE PIONEER CALLED.

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 19.—Charles Burkhalter, one of the first men to engage in the meat business at Wymore about thirty-five years ago, died at his home there after a prolonged illness, aged eighty years. He is survived by four children, Mrs. John Baird of Lincoln, L. L. Burkhalter of Wymore, Guy of Benkleman, Neb., and Mrs. Fred Leech of Salt Lake City.

Nebraska Nubbins

YORK—Charles M. Humphrey and Angela Pfeffer were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Pfeffer. Rev. George Webber officiated.

YORK—Martin Hoffman and Florence Pierson of Henderson, were united in marriage.

YORK—John P. Harder and Nettie Penner were married by County Judge H. G. Hopkins.

YORK—The University of Nebraska Glee club have a splendid entertainment in the opera house Wednesday evening.

YORK—Mrs. Bert Gibbons was struck by an automobile. The car passed over her breaking her collar bone and inflicting several bad bruises.

Disabled Veterans Want State to Pay

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 19.—Omaha chapter, No. 5 disabled American veterans of the world war at a meeting Thursday night passed a resolution asking state compensation for state veterans sustaining 10 per cent or more injury in the war. They ask that Nebraska pay each eligible veteran at the rate of 50 cents a day for active service with a minimum payment of $350 and a maximum payment of $500.

Lutherans Plan New York Church

YORK, Neb., Jan. 19.—The German Lutheran congregation of York is to erect a new church edifice to cost $30,000, according to announcement which has just been made by the pastor, Rev. Batz. The building will be of faced brick and located at Beaver avenue and Tenth street. Plans will soon be submitted by the architectand it is expected that work will begin about April 1.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 19.—A monument to the memory of soldiers who died in the world war and of appreciation to the living ex-service men and women is soon to be erected in Omaha. Plans of the Omaha chapter, American war mothers, succeed. A tag day is to be held in Omaha on February 10 when $7,000 for the monument is hoped to be raised.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing as this cannot possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water then moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces will last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Rev. Hibma Is New Pastor of Church at Pella

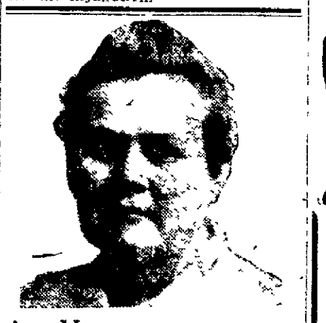

(Special to The Star.)

HICKMAN, Neb., Jan. 18.—Rev. Theda Hibma of Bijou, Minn., is the new pastor of the Reformed church at Pella, which has been without a pastor since Rev. H. Rothschaefer resigned last April. On Tuesday evening the members tendered a reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Hibma and their little daughter. Several hundred people greeted them. The Pella concert band, under the leadership of Frank G. Offer, played a number of selections after which Rev. Julius F. Schwarz, D. D., of Hickman greeted the pastor in behalf of the members. Rev. John Van Der Beek, of Prairie View, Kas., addressed the congregation. A "kitchen shower" was one of the happy features of the evening. A luncheon, provided by the young ladies, was served at the conclusion of the program.

The installation services were held at the Pella church Thursday afternoon, January 18. Rev. John Van Der Beek delivered the sermon and gave the charge to the people. Rev. Simon Koster, of Firth, Neb., gave the charge to the pastor. The consistory of the church is composed of Mr. Van Engen, Henry Kruse, Sr., Mr. Hiethage, B. VanGreuningen, Tony DeYoung and Edward Essink.

Doctors Seek to Enjoin Publishers

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 19.—The radiological society of North America, Inc., composed of more than 1,000 doctors throughout the country, filed suit in federal court here Thursday against the Radiological Publishing company, Dr. Albert F. Tyler and Herbert S. Tyler, seeking to have the Tylers stopped from publishing the journal of radiology. The society wants to publish the journal itself but the Tylers claim they have the right and will continue to publish it. The federal court was asked for an injunction.

Are You a Suffering Woman?

Health is Most Important to You

LINCOLN, Neb.—At one time I became very miserable with weakness from which women suffer. I suffered all the time. One of my neighbors urged me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription because it had cured her of similar symptoms so I decided to try it. The first bottle made me feel so much better I took four more and feel certain that in that one experience 'Favorite Prescription' saved me from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. Two years afterwards when the turn of life commenced, I took the 'Prescription' again with the result that I came through strong and healthy and am still maintaining wonderful health."—Mrs. Martha Strayer, 218 So. 19th St.

Gruenther Hurt In Automobile Crash

OMAHA, Jan. 19.—S. M. Gruenther, secretary of the Federal Land bank and member of the Metropolitan Utilities district, narrowly escaped severe injuries Thursday afternoon when his sedan car was struck at Twenty-third and California streets by an automobile driven by W. Green, 2403 Cass street.

The rear wheels and end of the sedan were smashed and the back of the front seat was broken by the impact. Mr. Gruenther, however, suffered only a badly wrenched back.

Someone in the crowd which collected notified the utilities board officers and R. B. Howell, general manager and senator-elect, went to the scene. Mr. Howell took Mr. Gruenther home.

Mr. Green explained he was blinded by the sun and failed to see Mr. Gruenther's car in time to avoid a smash. He and his wife were uninjured.

Flour Tumbles and Gravatt Is Injured

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 19.—W. H. Gravatt of Blue Springs is suffering from a badly injured leg and possible internal injuries caused from a pile of sacked flour falling on him while he was at work in the mill. He was brought to a hospital here, but secured little or no relief.

Hugo. Mr. Hugo has spent the past three weeks directing rehearsals and painting special scenes and arranging the electrical effects.

Platte Still Full Of Cakes of Ice

(Special to The Star.)

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 19.—Dauber of further damage from the Platte during the January thaw seems past. The river is much lower but it is still full of ice cakes. Repairs will be made soon on the privately owned wagon bridge leading to Fremont island. The bridge is still in use for pedestrians, but teams and automobiles are forbidden to go on it until new piling can be put in.

CRETE NOTES.

CRETE, Neb., Jan. 19.—An elegant banquet was given by fifty ladies of Crete chapter, O. E. S. in honor of the visit of District Supervisor Mrs. Oliver Mickey of Osceola. It was served by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church. Mrs. Mickey conducted a school of instruction at the lodge room following the banquet.

Miss Emma Brabec and Anton Novak were married this week by County Judge Grimm at Wilber. A wedding dinner was served for the bridal party and relatives at the home of the bride upon their return from the county seat. They will

Good Health Secret of Beauty

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to her sex which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expressions, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude, headaches and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs the most successful remedy known to overcome woman's ills and restore health and beauty.—Advertisement

WEAKNESSES OF THE CODE

Governor Bryan in his budget message to the legislature makes good on his campaign promise. He proposes for the abolition of the civil administrative code and departments and returns those activities which have been looked after by department chiefs, to the duly elected constitutional officers.

If the Nebraska legislature fails to perform a single other service, it can feel that its work in doing away with code government has been well worth while. Repeal of the civil administrative code is so closely interwoven with the fundamental issue of an economical state administration and the elimination of bureaucracy in state government that in its elimination the lawmaking body will automatically give the people the relief which they have indicated they desire.

Mr. Bryan outlines the weaknesses of the code system in the following fashion:

"When the code system was established, it appears that departments and salaries for each were created to correspond with a plan being tried in Illinois, a state, which, in population and business is many, many times greater than the state of Nebraska, and that the governmental activities in Illinois were necessarily a great deal larger, and were also handled by different executives, administrative and spending agencies.

"In Nebraska after providing the code secretaries with annual salaries of $5,000 each and six divisions of the state's administrative affairs set up, it then became necessary to try and find a sufficient number of departments and activities to place in the hands of the various code secretaries to justify the existence of the secretaries and the salaries paid them. In endeavoring to fit a business system devised to conduct the business of a very large state into a business system for a comparatively small state, the duplication in the state's activities has multiplied. The state's employes have greatly increased in number, educational departments have been established in administrative departments and duplications of effort and expense have become manifest everywhere.

"An effort was made to create numerous new executive officers or middlemen in the form of code secretaries and to set them up between the people's representatives—the constitutional officers—and the state's administrative, executive and educational departments."

Mr. Bryan has correctly interpreted the fundamental weakness of the code system of government. It was not so much the salaries of the code secretaries, nor the ordinary operating expenses of the original departments. It was the inevitable tendency exhibited in federal as well as state government, to greatly enlarge upon activities. Each code secretary, naturally desirous of making the best showing for his particular department, was busy devising new activities, until the increase in state agencies called for greatly increased expenditures.

Now the legislature is called upon to put a stop to this mushroom growth of boards, bureaus and commissions.

The lawmaking body should take this action without delay for in so doing it will be carrying out the wishes of the vast majority of taxpayers and voters in Nebraska.

WALLY REID'S DEATH.

Millions of movie fans throughout the United States will grieve over the death of Wally Reid. The circumstances of his death were distressing. Here was a young man who voluntarily exiled himself in the hope of overcoming an enemy which he knew would ultimately destroy his usefulness if he did not prove its master. The world was cheered by the splendid fight which Wally Reid made to break the drug habit and his many admirers wanted to see him win. Just when the fight seemed successful, and it appeared that the famous movie star was well along the road to recovery, death played its hand.

Wally Reid made clean pictures.

People felt better for having seen them.

That is why there is sorrow over his untimely death.

COBB BACK ON "THE DESK."

Irvin S. Cobb, who was recently managing editor of the Paducah News-Times for one day, December 30, The noted humorist spent a busy day in his "home town," according to The Fourth Estate, which contains a brief report of the experience.

Mr. Cobb secured for that one day the services of the most distinguished staff of writers that ever served at one time on a Kentucky paper. The term secured is not exactly correct since most of them volunteered their services, wrote over their signed names and were given their "jobs" over the heads of a dozen or more other prominent "applicants" who included most of the prominent business men of Paducah.

During his day of managing the Paducah News-Times he had 200 visits from Paducahans. Telegrams and telephone calls poured in upon him. It is a wonder he ever got the paper to press. But he did and such a paper as it was! Back in 1904 Mr Cobb left that same paper to take up his work with the New York Sun, carrying with him the prediction of a brilliant future.

Soon we shall expect to read about this experience in Mr. Cobb's own happy manner.

AN ACCEPTED ART.

Beauty lotions are used where ever women desire to be beautiful, which means everywhere under the shining sun, of course. Helena Rubinstein makes some apt comments on this subject in the January issue of Arts and Decoration, after describing an experience in darkest Africa where she secretly watched medicine men making concoctions for the special purpose of beautifying women.

One of these methods she found to be a harmless and effectless "pill" intended evidently to work only upon the mind of the "would-be beautifuls." Another was a compound of herbs, the potency of which she could not vouch for, and the third was made from the bones of the dead. The securing of these secrets, she explains, made her liable to become an "essential ingredient" in the last compound.

Exterior decoration, as she terms the use of cosmetics, is an accepted art the world over. Suffering a temporary setback of several centuries during the Puritanic age, she believes it is now emerging again to claim the women of all the world, civilized and otherwise. She calls it, "spreading the gospel of beauty."

LIVING COSTS.

The cost of living for the average American family has advanced 1.8 per cent since July according to the report dated November 1 and just now published by the National Industrial conference board. The November level was likewise 58.4 per cent higher than the 1914 level but 22.5 per cent lower than the July 1920 level.

Food during the six months covered and ending November 1922 advanced 2 per cent. It is now 45 per cent above the pre-war level, but 34 per cent below the peak price of 1920. Rents advanced 1 per cent and the advance over the eight year period has been 67 per cent.

Clothing prices increased 4 per cent during the six months covered but are 42 per cent below peak prices. Fuel and light increased 7 per cent and 86 per cent in eight years. The present coal price is 12 per cent higher than during the time of peak living prices generally. Sundries decreased in cost for the past six months about 1 per cent but are still 71 per cent higher than in July 1914.

Comment by the Press

CO-OPERATION VERSUS CHAOS.

It may be pertinent to ask of those pertinacious men and women engaged in the onslaught of partisan primaries and party circles on the general ballot, where they expect to get and what they are likely to accomplish if they succeed in eliminating all party earmarks from the suffrage system, state and national.

Individual expression is a very fine thing, but one million or five million suffrage atoms moving entirely of their own volition and acting independently without regard to each other, would be a picture of chaos to compel the consternation of the gods.

Antagonism to partisan organization and expression is as senseless as would be an opposition to the first instinct of the universe for "birds of a feather to flock together." As well prohibit all other human organizations and associations, and define an agreement between one person and one other person as a conspiracy against the public interest.

There are Jews, Protestants and Catholics. There are Masons, Odd Fellows, and Knights of Columbus. There are Workmen, Woodmen, and other beneficiary organizations. Also farm bureaus, farm blocs, and labor union organizations. There are Elks, Rotarians, and Kiwanians. There are women's clubs, civic and social. In short the whole world is organized for profit, pleasure, or promotion of political beliefs.

A representative form of government is impossible without coordination of political thought and effort. A simon pure democratic form of government is impossible until humanity is relieved of all fault and frailty. A republic cannot endure unless men and women of all shades of opinion are permitted to work cooperatively through all political channels for the promotion of good government according to their lights. When every sovereign citizen becomes so wise in his own conceit and so superior to suggestion that he cannot align his effort with that of his friend or fellow citizen, he is trenching pretty close on sovietism and is less farther removed from it than he is willing to admit.—Kearney Hub.

A POT OF GOLD.

A dispatch from Nogales, Ariz., tells of the discovery of the bodies of two old time prospectors, J. T. Johnson and J. C. Mackey, dead, side by side as the result of a suicide pact. The two men had followed the desert trails together for a life time in search of wealth which others always were destined to enjoy. They chose to go out together on a longer trail.

The incident is pathetic. Undiubtedly it affords a text for a brief sermon, though not one against the moral crime of suicide. Rather it should be one on the value of true companionship and the theory that life justifies itself and provides its own rewards.

The few city dwellers who have been privileged to know such characters as Johnson and Mackey undoubtedly were, know that long before their deaths their search for gold had become its own justification. The rich vein always just over the next rise, the rich "float" in the bottom of the next draw, was merely an excuse for the long journeys across the open spaces and the long nights under the low stars. The search was the thing. It is always so in life, but the prospector proves it most conclusively.

When he does uncover the reality of his dream of wealth he sells it for a song, spends a few days or weeks in riotous living, and goes back to his burro, his desert, his mountains and his stars. His happiness lies in the life and in the dream, not in the realization. Many years ago we saw a prospector lose his fortune of some $150,000 in a faro game in Tonopah, Nev., where he had been a wealthy man about town for two years. The next day we met him on the street. He was punching a burro out into the desert. He hadn't been so happy in the two years since his big strike.

With a companionship such as the death pact in Nogales seems to indicate, the joy of search and effort is doubled as the anticipations are doubled. There is nothing pathetic about such a fate for such men. They died as they had lived, and they had lived as they desired.—Chicago Tribune.

More Truth Than Poetry

I hand a tribute to the man
Who, having risen in a day
From humbleness to prominence,
Can still hold fast to common sense
And shoo the flatterers away.
When one is lifted into ease
And getting money by the hale,
As if the dollars grew on trees,
It's hard to shun the slippery trail.

The man who struggles long and well
Upon the pathways that are steep
Has, when the goal is reached at length,
Developed poise and gathered strength
To turn from pitfalls that are deep.
When he has proved his worthiness
And borne the bruises of mischance
He may be trusted with success.
No wildness will be in his glance.

The man who has been bred and reared
To occupy a lofty place
Needs little praying for indeed;
He learns disgust for those who lead
Luck's reckless darlings to disgrace.
He has been taught in many schools
To be suspicious of false praise;
His friends are not the vulgar fools
Whose fancies turn to vain displays.

Let prayers be said for him who comes
To fame and fortune overnight,
Who has not been prepared by long
And wise endeavor to be strong,
Who has not fought with all his might.
I hand a tribute to the boy
Who, thrilled by sudden wealth and cheers,
Can keep his head and still employ
That part of it above his ears.

MAKING HUSBAND A SOCIETY MAN.

Too many wives try to make society men out of their husbands, when they do not enjoy anything of this sort.

The task of making a living, laying aside enough for a rainy day or old age is a big problem to most men.

They cannot afford the cloudy, tired brain, and worn nerves, which late nights would cause them to take to the office or shop next day.

The man who is in earnest in endeavoring to make good, needs plenty of sleep, and recreation that is restful, making him happy and contented.

The right sort of man—husband or father—has his biggest aim to provide for his family in the present and the future.

In planning for the future he thinks not so much for himself as he does for his wife and children if there is one or many.

In this effort he should have his wife's help and sympathy.

Instead of making the struggle harder, the good wife will try to avoid things which lessen prospect of success.

As a wife, do you make it hard or easy for your life partner to do his best along the line he believes right.

NO GOOD BY CROSS LOOKS.

Why do you allow that disagreeable expression to set and overshadow your face so many hours of each day?

Isn't it possible for you to be earnest and interested without that clouded expression?

You need not smile all the time, that would be too much, but why go to the other extreme and look cross and ugly so much of the time?

If you consider it necessary for you to cultivate such an expression in order to be considered thoughtful and thoroughly interested and you want to impress the fact that hard business rules you place instead of matters of a lighter nature, you are choosing the wrong way to make this impression.

There is too much grouchiness in the business world. It is not necessary to business success.

No more is accomplished by looking cross about it and unnecessarily issuing commands.

Workers who must be put under the lash to get anything accomplished are not valuable.

Get rid of the employe who will not work unless you force them to dig in for it takes too much out of you and the result is not worth the effort.

Here and There

SOUTH DAKOTA RELIC OF 1743.

(Sisseton, S. D. Courier

Fort Pierre has donated nine city lots to the state of South Dakota with a clear title, these lots surrounding the spot where children of the Fort Pierre schools found the Verendrye plate on February 17, 1913. The Verendrye is the most valuable relic in possession of South Dakota and there are few in the entire country which are of more historical worth.

This plate was planted by the Chevalier de La Verendrye in taking porsession of the northwest in the name of France and it had lain hidden in the gumbo west of the river until it was found by the children from the Fort Pierre schools while at play.

It is the intention to make the site of the finding of this valuable document a place of historic interest and legislature will be asked for a small appropriation to erect a monument of the place where the plate had been buried. The lots donated to the state are near the proposed state highway from Fort Pierre to Midland, which it is hoped will eventually be built and constitute a portion of the Black and Yellow trail. The plan is to make a park of the lots surrounding the monument and build a Black and Yellow trail and build a circular driveway so that tourists on the Black and Yellow trail may visit one of the most important spots in the northwest.

The Verendrye plate is in the state historical library where it has been arranged for public inspection.

On one side of the plate the following is stamped in Latin, which when translated reads:

"In the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Louis XV, the most illustrious Lord, the Lord Marquis of Beauharnois being the viceroy, 1741 Peter Gaulteir de Loverendrye placed this."

On the other side in French the following when translated reads:

"Placed by the Chevalier de La Verendrye Lo (Louis) Jost (Joseph(Verendrye Louis LaLendette A. Miotte. The 30 March, 1 1743."—Sisseton, S. D., Courier.

THE ONLY HOPE.

In his address at Christiana several weeks ago, accepting the Nobel peace prize, Dr. Fridtjof Nansen said:

"Surely we have received proof as never before that war secures no good ends even for the side that wins. War is and will ever be negative, destructive; it can never bring aught but evil in its train. And yet, in spite of everything, you have blind, misguided people going about today and talking of "the next great war," the next great trial of strength, though they must know it all mean the end, the final destruction, the inevitable doom of Europe. We are on the road back to barbarism. Anyone who has traveled throughout Thrace and has seen the whole population out on the roads with their property must inevitably feel himself back again in the days of the great migrations. . . What humanity needs now is self-sacrificing active altruism which is able not only to give, but also to give up and when I look around me for the means to bring about this end, I confess that I see no hope of saving the situation anywhere except in the league of nations. it alone gives us reason to hope. Should it fail in its great task, then I should feel that the last hope was extinguished indeed. But I do not believe it will fail. I believe that it can be reinforced by the united strength of all, that we can more and more strengthen the real spirit of international solidarity in it, that we can make it more and more what it is intended to be: The parliament and organ of the United States of humanity."

It is significant that every peace prize awarded since the close of the war (no award was made from 1914 to 1917) has been given to men whose hope for peace lies not in international good will and useful friendliness, but in an association of nations in one form or another, a real world organization to form state rules and enforce orders. The only exception was the Nobel prize of 1917, awarded to the International Red Cross for its war work.

Woodrow Wilson in 1918, M. Bourgeois of France in 1920, and Now Dr. Nansen in 1922 have won the Nobel award because they preached and worked for a world league.—Des Moines Register.

PEACHES AND PERSIMMONS

The happiest country is the one that doesn't amount to a darn.

It takes three generations to make a gentleman, and only a three-day growth of beard to spoil the job.

Becoming more civilized is just a matter of inventing prettier sophistries to excuse our cussedness.

The man who thinks the people are fools changes his mind when he hears their hands clapping in applause.

Man is funny. Hard necesity drives him to work, and after he gets accustomed to it he despises those who loaf.

The boy who once wore dad's cut-down pants now has a son who uses dads' old car to make a strip-down speeder.

There are still a few things that can be advertised in a magazine without using silk-clad legs as an illustration.

He thinks he is a grouch because he has no friends; but as a matter of fact he has no friends because he is a grouch.

Noah stepped out of the Ark and looked about. "Well, thank goodness" said he; "the war debts are wiped out."

Lots of people think Heaven a place where they will get all the things they haven't the energy or ability to earn down here.

Another reason why a church service is more popular in a small town is because there is nothing else to justify dressing up.

Every once in a while the postoffice clerks catch up with their work and give their attention to the special delivery letters.

So live that it will never be necessary to send your influential friends around to ask the newspapers to leave out the sordid details.

Expert Gives His Candid Opinion

Drug Clerk, Speaking From Own Experience, Says Tanlac Has No Superior—Troubles Gone.

"Not in years have I enjoyed such good health as I do since taking Tanlac, and I am glad to give a straight-from-the-shoulder recommendation for this medicine," declared Marvin Cohen, 1439 N. Rockwell St., Chicago, a young drug clerk.

"I suffered terribly from stomach trouble and got into a badly run-down condition. Gas formed on my stomach, attacks of indigestion kept me in misery, and headaches and pains in my back helped to pull me down. Basketball was my favorite pastime, but I got so weak and short of breath I had to give it up.

"But Tanlac has put my health on a firm foundation and there is no guesswork about it. I never have indigestion any more, can play a fast game of basketball, and just feel in fine shape. I have handled many medicines over the counter but there's none better than Tanlac at any price."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

Little Bobbie's Pa

Well, sed Pa last nite wen he caim hoam, I herd today from my old pal Hank Witherspoon, sed Pa, & he will never go fishing no moar, sed Pa. He has had two strokes, Pa sed & the end is prubly not far off. It is usually three strikes & out after one has had two strokes, sed Pa. Poor old Hank, sed Pa, he was certingly a Speed Merchant, Pa sed.

What is a Speed Merchant? I sed to Pa.

A fast stepper. Bobbie, sed Pa. The breed is dying out in these Prohibishun times, Pa sed. Thay are facing the setting sun like the noabel Red man sed Pa. Poor old Hank.

I am sorry to heer of his sickness, though I must admit I never liked him, sed Ma. I never saw him reely sober in all the yeers I knew him as one of yure pals, sed Ma to Pa.

No, sed Pa, I will admit that Hank dident spend much of his time keeping sober, sed Pa, but he had a hart of gold at that, Pa sed, a hart of gold Q a nimbel brane until the tide roase too high, sed Pa.

Yure frends are prubly sorry now, sed Ma, that thay was so wild in thare yung days, sed Ma.

Not them, sed Pa. If thay are like me, sed Pa thay wuddent reecall one single day of all them glorus yeers, sed Pa.

I guess yure frend Hank is wishing now that he had been more temperit in his yuth, sed Ma.

No, sed Pa, I doant think so. Hank was one of those birds that liked the high seas, sed Pa, & he was willing to sail high & wide, sed Pa, & talk his medisin afterward, like he is doing now, sed Pa.

What silly noshuns men have about sum things, sed Ma.

How so? sed Ma.

I was thinking of that speech you jest made about pure old frend Hank, sed Ma. You seem to think that Hank is perfeckly happy with his second stroke, so long as he had his good time yeers ago, sed Ma.

I will not argew with you about my frend Hank sed Pa.

You have no argew-ment to offer, sed Ma. In fact, sed Ma, I often think that you can thank the stars you are not in the saim boat yure frend Hank is in, sed Ma.

I am kind of lucky, I supposs, sed Pa. I have been lucky ever since my first grate stroke of luck, marrying you, sed Pa.

You are a old darling to say that, sed Ma & I hoap yure frend Hank will git better, thare must be sumthing fine about him if you like him so well, sed Ma.

Speaks Highly of This Home Made Cough Remedy

Says It Acts With Unusual Speed—Loosens the Mucus—Relieves the Irritation and Stops the Cough

Costs Next to Nothing—for a Big Supply.

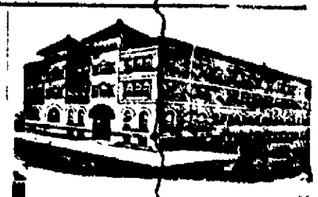

Whenever anyone in my family catches cold and begins to cough and sneeze, and hawk and breathe heavy, it doesn't take me many minutes to fix up a remedy that will drive away all such troubles in double quick time.

It's no secret—anyone can make a half pint of the finest cough medicine in the world for a trifling sum.

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parmint (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it.

But now you've got a real medicine—mind you—the first spoonful you take acts directly on the membrane of the throat and nose, the tickling ceases almost instantly—the inflammation begins to disappear—up comes the stubborn mucus and often in 24 hours every trace of the cough that frightened you is gone.

It's really remarkable how this home made remedy acts on the mucous membrane and that is one reason it is so helpful to thousands of Catarrh sufferers—Advertisement.

CAN FRANCE FORCE GERMANY TO PAY?

The sudden withdrawal of the last thousand of the American soldiers from the Rhine is interpreted by many Washington and editorial observers as an emphatic protest on the part of the United States Government against France's invasion of the Ruhr Basin and seizure of "productive guaranties" for the payment of Germany's reparations debt. This attitude on the part of official Washington, it is generally agreed, is due neither to sympathy for Germany nor lack of it for France, but to a conviction that the seizure of guaranties will not solve the reparations problem, and that it opens the door to a host of disastrous possibilities, chief among which is another world war.

Many American papers, on the other hand, whole-heartedly applaud France for resorting to a show of force, "the only language that Germany understands"; and they predict that her course will be fully justified by the results. The German-language press in the United States is pessimistic. "In taking from Germany her richest industrial district the French will deprive themselves of the last chance to get any further reparations," declares the Philadelphia Tageblatt, which thinks that the results of the Ruhr invasion will amount to "French suicide as well as unspeakable misery and chaos for Germany, and possibly civil war in the Reich." Other German-language papers express similar convictions.

Where Do Jokes Originate?

Some one has said that there are only seven original jokes in the world. If this is so, what a vast amount of thought must be expended in furnishing mirth-loving America with material. First and foremost among those who keep the public good natured are the newspaper "Wits" and what is known as typical American humor must be based upon their efforts. The best jokes, the cleverest epigrams, the most humorous incidents as they are printed in the press of the world are eagerly scanned each week by The Literary Digest editors and a selection of them presented upon the screen in motion-picture theaters under the heading "Fun From the Press." This new short reel creates unbounded laughter wherever it is shown. Many hundreds of theaters have booked it and we would suggest that you attend the theater in your locality where "Fun From the Press" is advertised and you will enjoy good entertainment. It is produced by The Literary Digest and distributed to theaters by W. W. Hodkinson Corporation.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy nervous spells acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation thus often relieving bladder disorders,

Jad Salts is inexpensive cannot injure makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year—Advertisement

OF THE GREAT SHOE SALE

ENTIRE STOCK OF THE C. & F. SHOE STORE

1107 O STREET

This stock, as the public knows, consists of the better grades and best brands on the market, including the famous HARLOW---WALKOVER---and many other similar grades and well known makes. This store has always enjoyed the trade of people who wanted the best---and now owing to the transfer of the lease and the forced vacation of the store --- the entire stock, including men's, women's and children's shoes --- must be turned into money, and former customers and friends of the store will be able to buy the very best shoes on the American market at prices that are unbelievable until seen. With the object in view of closing this stock out completely and vacating the store according to the lease transference I have marked every pair of shoes so low that the public will purchase quickly.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR GINGERBREAD MADE WITH WATER

Mrs. H. Z. Diller of Diller Wins First Money in Competition.

Mrs. R. A. R. Martin Wins Second Place—Ten Honorable Mentions.

First prize in the hot water gingerbread recipe competition was awarded to Mrs. H. E. Diller and second prize to Mrs. R. A. R. Martin of Mount Clare. Ten other recipes were selected for honorable mention.

The decision of the judge, Miss Charlotte Anderson, home economics expert in the Lincoln schools, is as follows:

First prize: Mrs. H. Z. Diller, Diller, Neb.

Second prize: R. A. R. Martin, Mount Clare, Neb.

Honorable Mention.

Mrs. Joe Andelt, Crete, Neb.
Mrs. Ike Smith, Salem, Neb.
Mrs. Charles Stephens, Exeter, Neb.
Mrs. J. M. Chambers, Wymore, Neb.
Mrs. Ella Gray, Lincoln.
Mrs. Mayme Stephens, Lincoln.
Mrs. Laura Rockwell, Syracuse.
Mrs. F. M. Holmes, Lincoln.
Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, Tecumseh.
Mrs. L. V. Slocumb, Havelock, Neb.

The Winning Recipes.

The winning receipes are as follows:

Soft gingerbread (Mrs. H. Z Diller).—Cream ½ cup of lard or butter with ½ cup of sugar and add ½ cup of sorghum. Add 1 cup of hot water in which 1 teaspoon of soda has been dissolved. Beat the mixture thoroughly. Add 1 egg well beaten and 1 teaspoon of ginger. Continue stirring and add 1½ cups of flour. Bake in a long shallow pan. When done cut across the center and cover half of it with marshmallows. Put into oven until the marshmallows puff up and became soft. Then cover with the other half and press down. Serve while warm. If you do not care for the marshmallows bake as a loaf cake.

Gingerbread (Mrs. R. A. R. Martin).—One cup molasses; 1 cup white or brown sugar; 1 cup butter or ½ cup lard (add pinch of salt if lard is used); 1 cup boiling water; ½ teaspoon soda; 1 teaspoon ginger 1 teaspoon allspice; 1 teaspoon cinnamon; 2 eggs; 2 cups flour. Mix together sugar, buter, eggs, molasses and spices. Add water in which the soda has been dissolved, and lastly the flour. Bake a half hour in moderate oven.

Honorable Mention.

The following recipes received honorable mention:

Gingerbread (Mrs. Joe Andelt).—One cup molasses; ½ cup sugar; ½ cup butter; 2 teaspoons each of ginger, cinnamon and allspice; 1 scant teaspoon cloves; 2 teaspoons soda dissolved in 1 cup boiling water; 2½ cups flour. Beat all together well. Add 2 eggs beaten light the last thing before baking. This is excellent when served warm.

Soft gingerbread (Mrs. Ike Smith).—One cup molasses ½ cup sugar; ½ cup buter 2 teaspoons soda dissolved in 1 cup boiling water; 1 teaspoon each, ginger, cinnamon, cloves; 2½ cups flour 2 well beaten eggs added last thing before baking. Serve with hard sauce made as follows: 1 cup sugar; ½ cup butter; 2 tablespoons cornstarch boiled in water till thick as cream.

Gingerbread (Mrs. Chas Stephens).—One half cup sugar, 1 cup molasses; ½ cup butter 2 eggs; 2 teaspoons soda disolved in 1 cup boiling water, 2½ cups flour, 1 teaspoon each of cloves, cinnamon and ginger. Cream sugar and butter, add molasses, hot water and soda, dry ingredients, and lastly well beaten eggs. Bake in a loaf or in two shallow tins. Place marshmallows between layers while still warm and serve with whipped cream.

Soft gingerbread (Mrs. J. H. Chambers).—One cup sugar; 1 cup butter and lard mixed; 3 well beaten eggs; 1 teaspoon each of cloves, and cinnamon; 2 teaspoons ginger; 1 teaspoon baking powder sifted into 3 cups flour; 1 cup hot water with ½ teaspoon soda dissolved therein. Bake in hot oven. This mixture will seem too thin, but do not add more flour.

"Tried and true" gingerbread (Mrs. Ella Gray).—One half cup butter; 2 eggs ½ cup light brown sugar; 1 cup sorghum molasses 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon; ½ teaspoon salt; 3 cups sifted flour. Stir all together. Bake in moderate oven thirty minutes.

Delicious gingerbread (Mrs. Mayme Stephens).—One half cup sugar; ½ cup shortening; 1 egg; 1-2 cup molasses. Beat to a cream. Add ½ teaspoon each of cloves, cinnamon and ginger; add pinch of salt. Sift 1 teaspoon of soda with ½ cups flour. After mixing all together add 1-2 cup boiling water and bake in a moderate oven about forty minutes.

Light gingerbread (Mrs. Laura Rockwell).—One half cup butter; ½ cup brown sugar 1 cup molasses; 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1 cup of boiling water, 1 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 teaspoon ginger; ½ teaspoon cloves; 1-4 teaspoon allspice; ½ teaspoon salt sifted with 2 cups flour; 2 eggs well beaten. Stir together; bake in moderate oven thirty minutes.

Gingerbread (Mrs. F. M. Holmes).—One half cup butter; 1 cup sugar, 1 cup molasses; 2½ cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup boiling water; 2 teaspoons baking soda; 1 scant teaspoon salt; ½ teaspoon each of ginger, cloves and allspice. Cream butter and sugar together, add molasses and mix thoroughly. Dissolve soda in the cup of water and add to above. Sift together two or three times the flour, salt and spices. Add to mixture. Last of all add 2 well beaten eggs. Bake in moderate oven about three fourths of an hour.

Gingerbread (Mrs. H. E. Reynolds).—One cup white or brown sugar; ½ cup sorghum; 1-2 cup butter or 1-2 cup lard to which ½ teaspoon salt has been added; 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon; 1 teaspoon ground ginger; ½ teaspoon ground allspice and cloves; 2½ cups flour; 1 cup boiling water; 2 eggs. Soften butter slightly and add sugar. Cream butter and sugar. Add molasses and spices; beat vigorously. Then add dry ingredients sifted together; pour in the boiling water and add well beaten eggs; beat whites of eggs first and then turn yolks in; fold in, do not stir. This recipe will fill sixteen spaces in gem tins or make good sized loaf.

Gingerbread (Mrs. L. V. Slocumb).—One cup sugar; 1 cup molasses; 1 cup shortening; 3 eggs; 3 cups sifted flour; 1 cup boiling water in which 2 level teaspoons soda have been dissolved; 1 teaspoon ginger; 1 teaspoon cinnamon. This mixture is very thin, but not too much so for baking. It will be soft and light.

Salad Dressing Recipes Next Week

Nebraska women are invited to submit their favorite recipe for thousand island dressing in the competition this coming week. For the best recipe the Lincoln Star will pay $2 and for the second best recipe $1. Recipes should be addressed to the recipe editor in care of the Lincoln Star.

All recipes should reach the office not later than Tuesday noon, Jan. 23. Any recipes received after that time cannot be considered by the judge, Miss Charlotte Anderson, home economics expert in the Lincoln schools.

SOIL MAPS ARE VALUABLE AIDS

Bankers Finding the State and Federal Soil Maps Accurate and Useful.

Base Loans On Report Of Soil Made By Borings—Less Chance for Error.

A valuable aid especially to the Federal Farm Loan bank and to all other lenders of money on Nebraska farms is found in the soil maps published by the federal government from surveys conducted by the division of soil survey under the direction of Dr. George E. Condra. F. C. Hornsby, member of the Nebraska legislature in 1915, who is an examiner and appraiser for the Omaha Federal Land bank, who called at Doctor Condra's office last week to ascertain what surveys had been made and published that he did not have, reports instances where the maps have been more accurate than the appraiser's report. The surveys are checked by both state and federal experts before they published. Banks, in making loans, accept these reports and charts without question. The maps show the various classes of soil which has been determined by borings at frequent intervals.

This method is of more value than a visual inspection of the land, which may be entirely satisfactory to the eye but found to be shallow, and with an entirely different soil underneath which is droughty. Borings enable accurate classification, thus obviating the necessity of resorting to arbitrary classifications that leading banks have been following, which in many cases have been found to be untair to cirtai sections of the state. Formerly rainfall was the basis of land classification.

Injustices were done many parts of the state that were placed in the rough category of this early classification. Rich valleys, some of them small, in the sand hills and sections of smaller rainfall were ruled out. These are given due consideration in the maps where every valley is shown and the soil named.

Money lending is placed on a more certain bassi and interest rates are stabilized by this accurate soil information. The mortgagor can lend with certainty; he need not figure on any risk in the deal arising from unexpected decline in fertility or crop failures from drought.

The work of surveying the state is being pushed in an effort to complete it as early as possible. Some of the first counties surveyed will have to be re-worked on account of some inaccuracies.

Coal Operators and Union Chiefs Wary Of Anti-Trust Law

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Wary of the Sherman anti-trust law, union chiefs and coal operators on the second day of their conference here, indicated they would wait for advice from the federal coal commission, before proceeding to negotiate a new wage scale based on the tri-state competitive field they mapped out yesterday.

It was generally understood that until the federal coal commission indicated its attitude by some sign, the conference here would proceed to the point of actually signing contracts and then would mark time.

Keep Sinclair Off The Witness Stand

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Harry F. Sinclair, chairman of the board of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, was not permitted today to testify before the Senate oil investigation committee. With Sinclair in the room at the time waiting to testify, Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, republican, chairman of the committee, announced the committee would hear no further testimony from him until he appeared Monday morning in response to a subpoena issued late Thursday.

THE GREATER LOVE

A New Romance by Virginia Terhune Van de Water

Author of Nation-Wide Reputation and Writer of Popular Novels and Short Stories.

A New Romance by a Famous Author.

CHAPTER LXXV.

James Walsh was a short and plump man, with a red face and very black hair. When in good humor, he laughed a great deal. When in a bad humor, he swore.

He was always polite to Kenneth. The young man wondered if, in his early career, Walsh had ever been in some trouble that Kenneth Lang, Senior had helped conceal. The son was sure that his father would have assisted at such concealment only if the perpetrator of a doubtful transaction—whatever it was—had done the right thing at last and made restitution.

But—had James Walsh run straight? If he had not, it must have disappointed the Christian gentleman who had trusted him. Kenneth faced that the multi-millionaire suspected that the young man knew something of his shady past—which only proved that Walsh was incapable of appreciating the character of Kenneth Lang, Senior. With his secrets had made their grave.

All this passed through the mind of Victoria's caller as his host greeted him effusively and pressed upon him a high-priced cigar.

"You will find nothing better, no matter where you go," Walsh said. "I will not smoke a cheap cigar, and I will not allow a guest in my house to smoke one. Well, Vickey, my girl, it seems good to see Ken back again doesn't it"

"It surely does," she agreed.

The caller would have been a fool had he not been aware that this father would be glad to have his only daughter married to the son of the aristocrat, Kenneth Lang Senior. Money had not procured for James Walsh that which his upstairs nature craved—the entree into decent society.

If his girl married into the circle to which he aspired, her parent would follow her there.

This evening he talked, as do most men of his class, of himself. He spoke of his money, of how fortunate he had been in investments.

"I used to call myself rich before the war," he said, "but the war doubled my fortune. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good, Kenneth."

Victoria spoke quickly. "Dad for goodness sake don't tell us that again. I've heard it often enough. What's the good of money if it doesn't help us get what we want?"

"But it does," the father insisted. "It brought me and your mother such comforts as we have now," waving his hand toward the sumptuous furnishings. "It gets you the handsomest clothes that can be bought. And, what's more it makes it possible for me to promise you that if you marry the right kind of a chap you'll have as much all your life as you have now. But," and a hard note came into his voice, "if you throw yourself away, not a cent of my money do you get—either before or after your marriage—understand?"

Yes, liquor had loosened Walsh's tongue, the young man reflected as he walked home tonight. But why was he so strenuous in his statements with regard to Victoria's possible choice of a husband?

Years ago, the father had delivered himself of this subject calmly and dispassionately. Tonight he had spoken with heat that showed that his indignation and fear ad been aroused. Surely here was some reason beside liquor for this.

LYNN J. FRAZIER TO GIVE ADDRESS

North Dakota Senator-Elect to Discuss Farm Problems Here Friday Night.

United States Senator-elect Lynn J. Frazier, of North Dakota, will deliver an address on stabilization of prices of farm products and similar topics in the main dining room of the Lincoln hotel at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The meeting is under the joint auspices of the Non-partisan league and a group of farmers. I. W. Jacoby, of Havelock, members of the Nebraska legislature, will preside. The meeting is open to the public.

Mr. Frazier is making a tour of some sixty Kansas and Nebraska towns and cities. He spoke at Broken Bow Thursday night and at York Friday afternoon.

LINCOLN PACKING CO.

Gentlemen:

Some 45 years ago I lost all the money I had and $13,000 besides, learning how to make an export ham at the stock yards in Chicago. I learned too late--my capital was gone, and I came to Nebraska. I believe I am an expert judge of ham and bacon, and I want to tell you and every one who reads this letter that Your Lancaster Ham is just as good an article as is made in Chicago. It's just as good as any other leading brand. In fact I think, judged from all points, is the best ham of all. I don't know a man connected with your company, but we all should be proud that such a fine article of food (eaten by everybody) is made in Lincoln, and every Lincolnite should call for Lancaster Ham. They tell me that your bacon is just as good, but not having used much of it, I can't say. Buy the hams made at home and build up Nebraska.

(Signed) F. M. WOODS.

"Will you answer me this, Miss Tippit," says Julia, paragon of maids. "What does Mr. Jollyco mean when he talks about 'comic opera soap'?"

"Ha, ha," laughs Nurse Tippit, "look here!" And she holds up a cake of Sally Jollyco's "magic" beauty soap. "That's what he means, Miss Julia. I don't see how she stands such soap when there's Ivory in the house. I'd rather not wash, I would."

Now, Miss Tippit, say we, be charitable. Sally is very young, but she's not permanently incorrigible.

Yes—Soap can help you to have a good complexion!

Can soap help toward the achievement of that desire of all women—a beautiful complexion?

Yes.

By cleansing gently and safely, for cleanliness is a prerequisite of skin beauty.

For many years we have made more soap than any other soap manufacturer in the country. We believe we are well acquainted with all the ingredients which go to make soap. We have never yet found any material—medicine, coloring matter, perfume, essence or distillations—which would add a single iota of beautifying power to a toilet soap as pure and gentle as Ivory for the complexion.

If any soap can legitimately be called a "beauty soap," then Ivory is a beauty soap of the very finest type.

But, much as you may like and respect Ivory Soap, you would scarcely expect it to do more than cleanse thoroughly, gently and safely, and intelligent women are fast learning that thorough, safe cleansing is after all the only safe and sure road to wholesome skin beauty.

PROCTER & GAMBLE

IVORY SOAP

99 44/100% PURE IT FLOATS

It's been a long time since anyone has heard about our tricky neighbor, Mrs. Prowl. And we've just discovered where she's been.

Sh! Look behind the bars. . . .

Arrested! Yes, for stealing the Ivory Soap from a baby's bathtub and substituting a harsh soap in its place!

The wise Judge sentenced her to solitary confinement and a daily bath with that same harsh soap. And now, dear reader, poor Mrs. Prowl is pleading for Ivory! Shall she have it?

C-E-P

No, these are not dashes—they're minus signs and indicate business losses due to—but Mr. Dixon, head of a big department store, is telling Mrs. Jollyco:

"Every day," he says, "women bring back to our store blouses and sweaters that have faded or shrunk and ask us to exchange them or give their money back. Now I know, Mrs. Jollyco, that our materials don't fade or shrink if properly washed with the right kind of soap. What shall I do?"

"Well, Mr. Dixon, if I were you, I would have the clerks suggest that such delicate things be washed with Ivory Flakes, according to directions on the box. Ivory Flakes is simply Ivory Soap—flaked. It is the mildest soap I know. I always use Ivory on my face. If you do this, I think your problem will be solved."

Mrs. Jollyco's advice will be worth probably thousands of dollars to Mr. Dixon, to say nothing of the benefit to his customers.

For delicate garments—Read this Safety Test

Before you trust your costly fine fabrics to any soap in any form, a doubt naturally comes up in your mind.

"Is this soap really safe?"

Ask yourself: "Would I be willing to use this soap on my face?"

A soap which is too strong for your face is naturally too strong for your delicate and costly garments.

Ivory Flakes is simply Ivory Soap in flake form. Of course it fully meets this important safety test.

For Ivory Soap, pure, mild, gentle, white—has protected the faces and hands of millions of women since 1879.

Ivory Flakes offers you a real margin of safety for cleansing the very finest garments you own.

Minerva's Mail

Take Your Troubles to Minerva

He Squirms But Answers.

"What do men most admire in women?" is a question favored of many fair young things. This ability to attract and charm men, or at least A MAN is still woman's chief stock in trade, it seems, even in this age of independent womanhood. "Mere Man" today gives us a most mannish answer, being quite as generalistic and evasive as is typical of the average man's reply when cornered:

Dear Minerva: How little I dreamed my first letter to your interesting department would cause your readers to turn the spotlight on me as they did. Being the object of so much attention all at once makes me feel almost as weak in the knees and white around the gills as I felt long years ago when I got up before a crowd to recite a long recitation about Mary, Queen of Scots. Quaking like an aspen leaf I followed the ill-fated queen from "the stately convent with its old and lofty walls" to the gay court of Bourbon, thence to the turret chamber of ancient Holyrood and last of all to the block. That was a horrible experience but nothing compared to this.

Since reading Mere Woman's remarks I've decided after all the water does look inviting. How could it look any other way with so many brainy females right in the swim?

The nerve of some people. Just because I laid aside my pipe and paper one evening long enough to dash off a few impertinent lines to Minerva, Mere Woman starts imagining things, even dares to insinuate that I'm not happily married. Wonder if she thinks I'll tell the world" if her surmise is within a thousand miles of being correct? Not if I know the fair sex. It's never safe to confide family secrets to a woman unless she's under the lilies. I'll have to hand it to the ladies though for they sure do know how to bring out all the latent and hitherto unsuspected talent in a man. A friend of mine got married last fall and already his wife has taught him to knit. They spend their evenings together in cheerful companionship, occupied with their knitting and at present he is knitting a sweater for her. Who would have dreamed that a genuine he-man could become so domesticated and grandmotherly in such a short time? At that, it's a nice little token of congeniality and his fervor for fancy-work lasts the modern bride may be putting something over the brides of fifty years ago. What's worrying Joe is whether to send him a lace night cap or a fancy kitchen apron or a sewing basket for his birthday.

What do men most admire in women? Ask me something easy. Why worry as long as there is a Jill for every Jack? Judging from what some of them lead away from the hymeneal altar some admire gab, some brains, some beauty, and others are easily pleased by most any old thing, not being at all particular. One man was so fascinated by a woman's oiliness that he almost fell over himself when she finally consented to make him happy for the rest of his natural life by marrying him. So there you are. Everything is lovely as long as they don't all want the same woman.

There might not be so many homes broken up to smithereens if the candidates for marriage had to produce a certificate showing themselves to be sound in mind ad body, with a working knowledge of home making. Then if the bride-to-be could give a guarantee that she knew enough to thread a needle and sew on buttons—say, man, what higher state of civilization would you want? Mere Man.

Not a Slow Life.

Dear Minerva: I must speak my mind to "Puzzled" for she is on the brink of the most dangerous leap ever made. I am of old-fashioned. No, far from it, but I do think the biggest share of the women now days seem to think that doing their housework and caring for the children is a slow, humdrum life. But no so. I am married and not so old, have two little girls but what I have endured in married life would make a whole book. At one time I thought my husband did not fill the bill and made the jump "Puzzled" is thinking of making and I say again. Look and listen before it is too late. Any woman that makes such a leap will regret it to her dying day. There is nothing so sad as a broken home, motherless children, and any man who pretends to be your husband's friend and is planning to be the ruination of another man's home by stealing that man's wife is yellow clear through, there is no manhood about him, and he will taunt you in years to come if you listen to him. Stay away from the divorce courts; there is nothing to them but regrets and heartaches.ONE WHO KNOWS.

Begonia Sheds Leaves.

Dear Minerva: Will you or some reader help me to solve this problem. I have a flower garden in the house this winter and my flowers are doing fine except that every leaf has fallen off my angel-wing begonia. The little ones get about half grown and then fall. I wonder if this is the nature of the plant. I can't find any bugs on it and I also have read books from the library and cannot find why they lose their leaves. So if some one who has had experience with begonias can tell me why they lose their leaves and how to prevent this, it will be appreciated.—A GARDNER.

A. Can some reader with begonia experience give this information, please.

Scripture Wanted.

Dear Minerva: Recently I saw in your mail for some reader to send in passages which state that one should be baptised. Here are a few passages:

Matthew 28:19 says, "Go Ye, therefore, and teach all nations, (or make Christians of all nations) baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holly Ghost."

Mark 16, verse 15: "He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned."

Acts 2, verse 38: "Repent and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holly Ghost."

Then one which states that Jesus Christ was baptised:

Matthew 3, verse 13 to 17: In these passages it shows that God is pleased with all who are baptised.

Acts 22, verse 16 says: "Arise, and be baptised, and wash away thy sins."

1 Peter 3, verse 21 also is a good passage, "that baptism doth also now save us."

Baptism is not simply water only, but it is the water comprehended in God's command and connected with God's word as. Matt 28:19. It marks forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and gives eternal salvation to all who believe this, as the words and promises of God declare. Mark 16:16. It is not the water indeed, that does them, but the word of God which is in and with the water, an faith which trusts such word of God in the water. For without the word of God the water is simply water, and no baptisms. But with the word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a gracious water of life and a washing of regeneration in the Holy Ghost. Read Titus, third chapter, also Romans, sixth chapter.

Hoping I have not taken up too much of your precious space and hoping the one who wanted these passages is satisfied—A BELIEVER OF BAPTISM.

ROUND UP SCORE IN DUAL MURDER

St. Louis Storekeeper And Son Slain By Bandits During Holdup.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 19.—Twenty-two suspects were caught early today in a dragnet which was thrown out by the police in the slaying of a father and son by bandits in an attempted holdup of a store last night.

The father, Sam Sokolik, proprietor of a meat market, understood English only slightly and failed to respond to the command of two bandits to "stick 'em up!" Two bullets were fired into his body and his son, Julius, was fatally shot below the heart.

Another son, Abraham, hurled a meat cleaver at the bandits as they fled. One of them gave a cry of pain and may have been injured.

Doctor Orders Rest, However, and Week's Engagements Are Cancelled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—President Harding is recovering from the attack of la grippe which has incapacitated him for the past few days, Brigadier General Sawyer, his personal physician, announced today.

In view, however, of the prevalence of much influenza in Washington, the president has been advised to "rest up" for the rest of the week, and all engagements for today and tomorrow—including the regular Friday cabinet meeting—have been cancelled.

It is not expected that Mr. Harding will put in an appearance at the executive offices before Monday.

CAPITOL WALKS DOWN TO GRADE

Zehrung Hopes the Unsightly Corners Will Be Eliminated in New Grounds.

Mayor Also Interested In Location of Heating Plant For New Building.

Mayor Zehrung is concerning himself with the future appearance of the capitol block and concerning this he has unofficially made some suggestions. He hopes the plans of the architect and the desire of the city will be followed out and the walks around the capitol square will be lowered to grade. The present steps at the corners are inconvenient and unsightly and offer a real hardship to pedestrians, he declares.

Another matter which has attracted the atention of Mayor Zehrung is the heating plant for the new capitol building. He is very much in hopes that it will be located in another section of the city, preferably along one of the railroad tracks east or west of the capitol and the heat piped to the building.

He thinks a heating plant on the grounds or under the building will be unsightly and dangerous and will make the neighborhood of the capitl unpleasant for residents. It is also suggested that the smoke will blacken the white stone of the new building.

Concerning the use of the old stone and material in the present capitol Mayor Zehrung joins with many local people in hoping that at least a part of it will be given to the state fair board to use for graveling walks, building buildings and stands and otherwise making permanent improvements in the fair grounds.

Now is the time to fight constipation with Bran—Start to-day!

Don't give the diseases that follow in the track of constipation a chance to lodge in your system! Get after constipation with nature's greatest helper—BRAN, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled—because it is ALL BRAN and because it will give you permanent relief from constipation! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that.

Bran's action is wonderful. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies. It knocks out the dangerous toxic poisons and frees the system from pollution! Try Kellogg's Bran for a week. Eat it regularly—two tablespoonfuls each day; as much each meal in chronic cases. You will be astounded at the difference in your feelings!

Kellogg's Bran should not be confused with common bran which is unpalatable and difficult to eat. Kellogg's is cooked and all ready to serve and really delicious. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook or mix it with hot cereal. In the latter cases add two tablespoonfuls for each person.

Do you realize what Kellogg's Bran can do for you and for your family; do you realize that it will keep sickness away; that it will put every one on a new health footing; that it will free you all from pills and cathartics?

Kellogg's Bran is particularly delightful made in raisin bread, in macaroons, popovers, muffins, etc. Recipes are printed on each package!

You will say that Kellogg's Bran is a blessing to humanity.

MASTER GROCERS

NEW YORK Cream Cheese lb. 40c.

A favorite with the chefs of many leading hotels and restaurants. You can easily prepare it in your own kitchen by following this recipe:

Boil 1 package American Beauty Macaroni. When cooked and drained, place in baking dish. In a small sauce pan place an ounce of flour, 2 ounces of grated cheese, a level teaspoon of mustard, half a teaspoon salt. Stir in slowly ½ pint milk and form smooth paste. Stir mixture over fire until first bubble of boiling appears. Remove sauce pan and continue stirring for a second or two to prevent curdling. Pour cheese sauce thus made over the boiled Macaroni, sprinkle a layer of bread crumbs over sauce and grate a little cheese over crumbs. Bake in a hot oven for a quarter of an hour, until nicely browned on top.

"OWN YOUR OWN HOME!" "Let Us Help You"

The Nebraska Central BUILDING and LOAN ASSOCIATION

1409 O Street. Lincoln, Nebraska

Homer K. Burket, Pres. M. W. Folsom, Secretary.

Home building and home owning is the most important phase of a nation's life. A city, a state or a nation is judged very largely by the percentage of homes owned and the number of homes building. Civilization has been built up around the nucleus of the family and the family has been developed by the maintenance of the home.

The pioneer days when a family could go to the frontier country to win and build a home are almost gone in America but the importance of the home in the more complex life of a faster civilization is greater now than ever before. The man who owns his home, or who starts out with the intention of owning it shortly by using some of the many methods now devised to give young people the proper chance to become home owners, is an asset to his community and his activities build for the good of his city and his nation as well as for the improvement of his own condition.

The real worth of a people is not determined by the number of mansions, castles or palaces but by the number of more simple homes, the number of family centers where independence is fostered and democracy is cradled. The real worth of a family and of the head of that family is measured very largely by the ability to provide a home and then to own that home.

The Thrifty Home Owner

Savings which do not result in making a home-owner of the saver, can hardly be called real Thrift. There is a sense of permanence and stability in home-owning which aids in promoting Thrift.

If you are a young couple, recently married, just starting in life and anxious to establish yourselves among Lincoln's substantial citizens, you will do well to make your plans early to own your home. Those born "with a silver spoon in their mouths" usually have a home given them; but they lose the joy of achievement experienced by those who must establish themselves by their own efforts.

Living in a rented house is, of course, no disgrace; but there is no incentive to improve it and the grounds in your odd moments of leisure. And there is always the feeling of uncertainty. You cannot have a real home unless you own it.

Lincoln is well supplied with institutions to promote savings and help deserving families to become home-owners. Each has its own peculiar advantages, and you will do well to investigate the different plans and choose the one best fitted to your case.

Our Prudential Monthly Payment loan plan is designed to aid those who have already saved 35 to 40 per cent of the purchase price of a house built and ready for occupancy. We have several variations in the time the loan is to run, but the favorite is as follows:

We lend you 60 to 65 per cent of the value of the property, in hundreds of dollars—no fractions—and not over $5,000, to finish paying the purchase price. You give us a first mortgage on the property, running 60 month (5 years) at 6 per cent interest. Each month you pay us a month's interest on the unpaid balance and 50 cents on each $100 of principal—making your monthly payments about the same as rent.

At the end of five years you will owe only $70 of each hundred you borrowed. This can be renewed on the monthly payment plan or as a straight loan. Come in and see Mr. Carlsen, if you are looking for a home in Lincoln.

JURY IS SECURED FOR SOUTH TRIAL

County Attorney Makes Opening Statement In Murder Case.

(Special to The Star.)

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 19.—The fate of Francis South, charged with the murder of Charles Wolf, in this city on the night of November 29, rests in the hands of the following men who were chosen as jurors late Thursday afternoon after nearly two days had been consumed in selecting a jury:

Ben Algerts, farmer; John Calland, garage proprietor, Odell; George Nicely, retired engineer; Thomas Fort, farmer; George Humphrey, farmer; C. P. Thompson Beatrice; Frank Osman, farmer; F. H. Pape, farmer; Henry Doolittle, farmer; M. A. Wick, farmer; C. A. Clough, Cortland.

After the selection of the jury, County Attorney Mattoon reviewed the case stating that the state would be able to prove that South with two other men met in the Parmer pool hall and there plotted to rob Wolf; that South with the other men was seen to leave the pool hall and go west to where Wolf was beaten over the head with an iron bar and robbed. He died two days later from his injuries.

The county attorney also stated that the state would be able to prove that Sout met the other two men at the Rock Island crossing on South Sixth street and that they drove to where the empty pocketbook of Wolf was found in a hedge fence near the roadside the following day. In reviewing the case he referred to bloody finger prints found on the electric light globe in the barn, on the walls of the building and on a fence and gate near the barn.

During the proceedings South was unmoved and occasionally he would glance over to his young wife and parents who sat just outside the railing in the district court room. Another capacity audience crowded into the court room. The trial of the case will probably last several days as about fifty witnesses on both sides are to be examined.

Editor In Texas Broadcasts News For Pawnee Folks

(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—On the evening of Wednesday, January 31, the broadcasting station of the Fort Worth Texas, Star-Telegram will broadcast an entertainment especially for the benefit of the people of Pawnee county, Nebraska. The editor of the Texas paper married a Pawnee girl. On many occasions the station has broadcasted news especially for Pawnee City or near-by points, denoting this fact in the reading of the item.

Five Candidates For Postoffice

(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—Civil service examinations for candidates for the position of postmaster at Pawnee City will be held here on February 6, according to a bulletin just received by A. E. Ovendon, present postmaster, from Washington. The position is made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Ovendon, to take effect April 1. The four candidates who ar actively trying to land the job are, Charles Barker, W. W. Cornell, George Neill and James Young. The first and last two named are ex-war eterans and both saw active fighting in France. Both were wounded in action.

Kearney Paving Bonds Sell Well

(Special to The Star.)

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 19—Kearney had no trouble disposing of $130,000 in paving bonds, ofered to the highest bidder. Nine banking houses had representatives on the ground and the sale developed into a regular auction, starting off with raises of $25 and gradually dwindling down to a raise of $1, so keen was the contesting. The United States Trust company, of Omaha, landed the entire block. Kearney's total premium being $1,880. Of the Bonds $35,000 represented intersectional paving, the remainder district paving. One small block, of $6,000, was held out for local investors.

GO TO HIGH SCHOOL.

(Special to The Star.)

FREMONT Neb., Jan. 19.—Fifty-one pupils of the Central school were promoted to the high school with appropriate ceremony at which Rev. Young spoke. Monday morning the fifty-one "graduates" will enter the high school as freshmen.

GOES TO PAWNEE BANK.

(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—Augustus Van Horne, cashier of the Farmers State bank of Ansley, will arrive in Pawnee City within the next few days and will become assistant cashier of the Farmers State bank here. His father, H. C Van Horne, is president of the institution.

DEMOLAY INSTALLS.

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 18.—Officers of the DeMolay were installed here Wednesday night with about two hundred friends of the boys in attendance. Floyd Smeller was made master councilor, taking the place of Arthur Baumberger, to whim the order presented a DeMolay jewel in recognition of his work during the past year.

Half a Dozen Men Get Into Race for Mayor In Hastings

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 18.—The mayoralty race in Hastings promises to be one of the most hotly contested held here in a number of years. Already six candidaates are being prominently spoken of as about ready to throw their hats in the ring and none of them denies the report. Mayor Stiner, who is serving his second term, has announced that it is unlikely that he will run again. The men who are expected to enter the competition are two former mayors, William Madgett and C. G. Farnham, "Bill and Charlie" who have so far made almost ever race together; and Councilmen Walter Livingston, J. F. Frye, M. M. Haynes and T. E. Bowman.

Meet to Apportion Benevolent Budget

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Jan. 19.—Fifty representatives from the Hastings Presbytery met in Hastings Thursday to apportion out the annual benevolent budget for the year. Mrs. R. V. Hillicker of Omaha, state president of the women's missionary societies of the synod; Mrs. J. M. Douglas of Holdrege, president of the Presbytery women and Dr. William H. Carns of Omaha, new superintendet of the district, were among the principal speakers.

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 18.— Frank Van Boskirk, farmer living northwest of Beatrice, filed suit in the district court Thursday afternoon for $5,150 personal damages against the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company for injuries which he alleges he received when a horse he was riding fell into a hole on the highway which linemen in removing the pole had left exposed.

Father and Son On Like Charges

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 19.—"Like father, like son" would seem to especially fitting in the case of the Potratz family, farmers near Kenesaw. Adolph has just been found guilty of illegal possession of a still and liquor while has father, August Potratz, was found guilty of both illegal possession and sale of intoxicating liquor about six months ago. The latter was fined $500 and given a jail sentence.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET.

(Special to The Star.)

FAIRBURY, Neb., Jan. 19. - The stockholders of the Hested Stores company, operating in seven Nebraska towns, held a meeting in Fairbury Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday night a banquet was served at the Mary-Etta hotel and Arthur L. Brayton, manager of the Des Moines Trade Journal, was a guest of the stockholders and a number of the company employes. Mr. Brayton entertained with an appropriate address. The business of 1922 was very satisfactory to the company.

FALLS CITY NOW HOPES FOR HOTEL

Native Son Offers to Finance Half of the Needed Project.

(Special to The Star.)

FALLS CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—Prospects for a new first class hotel for Falls City are now bright as the result of agenerous offer made by John W. Towle, president of the Omaha Structural works, a native son.

Towle has made the proposition of matching any amount raised by the community for the construction of the hostelry. Thus, if Falls City raises $75,000 for the project, Towle will give another $75,000 toward it, according to his proposition.

The campaign for funds will start Monday.

Want Early Date For Adams Fair

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 19.- Members of the Adams County Agricultural society seem generally to favor holding the same date for the next county fair as was held this year—the third week in August—which was the first scheduled for the season. For a time after the last fair, there was some talk of changing the time to a date in October, because August was rather early for some farm products. Definite action will probably be taken when the society meets on February 12 for the election of officers. The Short Ship circuit will hold its next meeting in Clay county, Secretary H. H. Wilson of Geneva to announce the date later. It will be in about two weeks.

Truck Goes Over Driver Is Killed

EWING, Neb., Jan. 19. - Roy Trimus, twenty, son of F. A. Trimus of Ewing, was killed here Thursday when the automobile truck he was driving up a steep hill went into a ditch, and overturned, pinning him beneath.

H. Dillon of the state board of health and Miss Whitely, state nurse, will deliver lectures to the parents of the community on health matters. Dr. Dillon's lecture will be given in the evening and will be illustrated by lantern slides and Miss Whitely will talk to mothers in the afternoon at the M. E. church.

RAIDERS SHAKE IN THEIR BOOTS

Fear Lest They Be Named As Members Morehouse Death Crew.

(International News Service.)

COURTHOUSE, ASTROP, La. Jan. 19.—The "hooded mob" of Morehouse parish tasted its own terror today as the state of Louisiana reached out an accusing finger to tear away, one by one, the masks of secrecy which have shielded the murderers of Watt Daniel and Thomas P. Richard for five months.

With two men already under charges of murder and a third who has been named in open court as a member of the "hooded mob," new names were expected to come today from the witness stand.

Terror has swept the parish. It is dread of justice Men gathering on corners discuss nothing but the "identifications." The question passing from lip to lip is: "Who comes next"

A rumor spread that the state intends to call Captain J. K. Swipwith, exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Kan, to the witness stand at once.

Me from the far backwoods rolled into town early today to attend the open hearings

The state prosecutors have made several moves to identify through testimony the "murder truck," which carried Daniel and Richard through Collinston, a town near Lake La Fourche, on the night they were slain. By direct questions, they have forced the owners of three different trucks to establish "alibis" in advance for their machines. Those men were T. E. Pratt, Jr., Smith Stevenson and Dean Ashcraft, driver of a truck owned by the Southern Carbon company.

Merchant Knows It Pays to Advertise

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Coming to work yesterday morning, a shoe merchant here, found his shop window broken. He frowned, then smiled. Walking inside, he soon returned with paint and brush, drew a large arrow pointing to the broken spot and added these words: "They broke windows to get our shoes."

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rexies Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store It is used like cold cream.—Advertisement.

BRYAN SINCERE IN HIS PLEDGES

Both Sides In State Legislature Commend His Budget Message.

Governor Says Gasoline Inspection Has Been Farce In Some Cases.

Governor Bryan's message to the legislature proposing to cut state appropriations for the coming biennium $5, 680,000 below those available during the last two years of the McKelvie regime, and to save the people of the state another $3,000,000 by reducing the automobile license tax one-half, was received with mixed emotions by those who heard him deliver it before the joint legislative assembly Thursday afternoon.

Besides the senators and representatives, the governor's audience included many heads of state departments and other persons whos positions will be abolished and whose names will disappear from the public payroll if his program is carried out. These, needless to say, did not endorse his sugestions.

But there were also many plain citizens and taxpayers in the crowd present, whose only part in the state government is to help foot the bills. This element among Governor Bryan's hearers registered its approval of his plan to reorganize and regroup the state activities, in the discussion heard about the lobby and the corridors after the joint session adjourned.

Commendation From Both Sides.

Democratic leaders in the legislature gave the message their hearty endorsement, and some of the republicans also spoke of it in favorable terms. It was not to be expected that individual senators and representatives would find all the governor's proposals exactly to their liking, but there was no apparent disagreement over the fact that it proved Mr. Bryan's absolute sincerity in trying to carry out his pledges and those which his party made to the people of Nebraska in the recent campaign.

"I'm mighty well pleased with the way Governor Bryan has put the situation up to the legislature, and I want him to know that I stand right behind him," declared Representative Theo. M. Osterman, democratic floor leader. "He is playing square with the people, and his program as outlined is a fulfillment of what was promised them."

Some of the republican partisans especially old timers in the legislature who helped to pass the code law in 1919 and were generally aligned with the late McKelvie administration, did not warm up to the governor's message, but they withheld unfavorable comment, for the most part, until the g. o. p. caucus called at the Grand hotel Thursday evening.

Describes Inspection Farce.

A decided hit was made by Mr. Bryan when he departed from his set address to tell about some of the practices he had found to exist in code departments. He revealed the interesting fact that state oil inspectors have been accustomed to test samples of gasoline afer the shipment from which the sample was taken had been sold by the dealers.

"The dealer, in many cases, saved out a small bottle of gasoline until the inspector happened to come along," said the governor, "but he went ahead in the meantime and sold the gasoline. This kind of inspection is a farce. I cannot conceive of any business man keeping on hand for the inspector a sample which might be used to prosecute himself on."

He declared that the work would be better done, and at much lower cost, if one inspector visiting a town should make inspections at the source wherever possible. In this way, traveling at state expense would be reduced to a minimum, and the payroll could also be cut down materially.

Tell Students To Start Day With Freshness

An appetite for what is coming is necessary if you are to realize on the possibilities of your life, said Dr. H S Wilkinson in his address to the mid-year class of eighth grade graduates at the promotional exercises held at the high school Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Wilkinson urged the students to take up their work with a new freshness every day, and to try to keep interested in it.

W. S. Whitten, secretary of the chamber of commerce, presented efficiency certificates and made a short address. The certificates of promotion were presented by Miss E Ruth Pyrtle.

NO VERDICT IN MASSACRE CASE

Balloting of Jury Ranges According to Hopes of Rumor Factory.

(International News Service.)

MARION Ill., Jan. 19.—The Herrin massacre jury, which was locked up at 10 o'clock last night, after being out nearly eleven hours, resumed its deliberations early today. Rumors were numerous and conflicting. Balloting of the jury was said to have ranged all the way from ten to two for conviction to seven to five for acquittal.

One Trawler of Hovering Liquor Fleet Is Sunk

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A bobbing red point of light on the waters two miles east of Ambrose channel, today marks the grave of a doubtful ship, which came to an end yesterday in the company of the rum fleet that rides the three mile limit off shore.

The ship, a steam trawler, burned to the water line, while another from the outlaw fleet stood by to aid the crew. Observers noted the sinking, then scanned the horizon and counted nineteen ships of the fleet still afloat. From Sheephead Bay, four large sea tugs, laden with fresh water and provisions went out yesterday to provision the fleet.

Rockefeller and Harding Possess Best of Teeth

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—President Harding and John D. Rockefeller, sr., have wonderful sets of teeth, the thousands of dentists attending their annual convention learned today when Dr. John F. Stephan of Cleveland, described some of his famous patients.

The president's teeth are all his own, too, Dr. Stephen assured his colleagues. "At specific times I go to Washington to look after the dental needs of the president and his wife," he said. "There is very little to be done with either.

"Mr. Rockefeller is 83 years old, but he has a wonderful set of teeth and he never fails to give them proper attention."

Second Annual Firemen's Ball Is Big Success

Close to 1,000 people attended the second annual Firemen's ball which was held at the city auditorium Thursday night. According to George Hawthorne, chairman of the committee in charge, the proceeds would total nearly $500. This money goes to the Firemen's Relief Benefit association.

Commissioner John Wright and Mrs. Louis Hansen and Chief Louis Hansen and Mrs. Wright led the Grand march. Fred Westrope was master of ceremonies.

Twenty-five firemen were guests of the local department, Miss Loretta Denison, daughter of one of the visiting Omaha men, entertained the crowd with several costume dances.

Haskell Showing Improvement; Has Chance to Recover

The condition of E Wade Haskell who is in St. Elizabeth's hospital suffering from a badly fractured skull received Wednesday afternoon at Emerald in a fight with his brother-in-law, Richard Maughan, continues to show improvement and his chances of recovery are fair, hospital authorities reported Friday morning. Form a Taxpayers League in Lincoln

A local taxpayers league was organized at a meeting attended by about forty men at the Lindell hotel Thursday evening. Joe Burns presided, and the principal address was made by Trenmor Cone, of Omaha. Other speakers were E. G. Marsh, Dr. W. L. Dayton, Frank Coffey, J. H. Shroyer and Robert McGinnis. Dr. Dayton urged the league to use caution in its demands for tax reduction and warned against the dangers of radical requests along this line.

The league will hold regular meetings, with topics for discussion based on taxes and governmental expenditures.

TO COOPERATE IN REDUCING TAXES

G. O. P. Solons Discuss Means of Cutting Cost of Government.

No motions were offered and no course of action was agreed upon at the caucus of republican house members and a few senators, held at the Grand hotel Thursay evening. The meeting was given over entirely to a discussion of Governor Bryan's budget message and the necessity of reducing state expenditures in order to satisfy the people of the state who are demanding lower taxes.

While some criticisms were voiced relative to particular suggestions of the governor, other opinions were expressed that the legislature should co-operate with Governor Bryan in carrying out an economy program. The subject of the code law, its merits and demerits, was kept in the background.

Chairman Green of the caucus called on thirty or more members in turn to state their views Among those who talked was Representative Garber. He stated that the people will not be satisfied, unless the legislature does its part in cutting down the cost of government and eliminating unnecessary things.

The caucus broke up when Representative Peterson, who had been asked by Chairman Green to give his ideas, declared that he was getting sleepy and moved to adjourn.

Ailing Children Get Well on Syrup Pepsin

A small dose at bedtime brings relief and laughter by morning

HOSPITAL and doctor's records prove that 75 per cent of human illness has its origin in the intestinal canal, complicated with what is commonly called constipation. Realizing what that figure means, mothers should contrive methods of handling their children while they still control them that will prevent these future dangers. Teach children regularity of bowel movement, and be especially watchful of young girls. Insist on two passages a day until the age of 18, when one is usually sufficient. Give plenty of oranges and apples, plenty of butter because it lubricates the intestines, and encourage the drinking of water.

If you detect restlessness, belching, gas or wind on the stomach, sleeplessness, or lack of appetite, examine the tongue and you will find it coated, accompanied by unpleasant breath. The child is bilious, constipated. According to age, give from one-half to a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which children never object to taking as they like the taste. By morning the youngster will be well again. Likewise if the nostrils are stuffed up or there is persistent sneezing, a dose of Syrup Pepsin will break up the fever and cold.

Mrs. Geo. N. Colson of Bernard, Me., keeps her family well in that way, and Mrs. Ida A. Burkett of Carroll, La., who has been using Syrup Pepsin for a dozen years, has raised her three children on it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. The formula, however, is on every package. Druggists have sold it with satisfaction to their customers for over 30 years, and it is now the largest selling family laxative in the world. Buy a bottle today. It will last you for months, and the cost is only about a cent a dose.

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I urge you to try Syrup Pepsin. I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 615 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!

Nebraska League Gets Sioux City If Western Transfers Club

FARRELL CALLS TEARNEY BLUFF

National Association "Sec" Quotes Baseball Law to Western Prexy.

Sioux City Territory Open to State Loop If Western Transfers Club.

(Associated Press.)

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 19.—Unless the Western league occupies the Sioux City territory and operates a club here it cannot keep the Nebraska State league out of Sioux City, says J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Baseball association, in a telegram to George W. Segrist.

Secretary Farrell's statement was made in response to a request from Mr. Segrist for information on the matter. The question arose as the result of the publication of a statement by A. R. Tearney, president of the Western league, to the effect that the Western league would hold the Sioux City territory regardless of whether or not a club was operated here.

Mr. Segrist is the owner of the Fairbury franchise in the Nebraska league and planned to install a club in Sioux City in case the Western league withdrew.

Western in Tight Hole.

Decision by National Association Secretary Farrell in re Sioux City is a big break in favor of the Nebraska State league. The ruling means that the Sioux City territory, once the Western league transfers the Mattick-McKenna club, will revert to the Nebraska loop. Incidentally, Secretary Farrell's decree adds another worry to President Tearney's already large crop of troubles.

The task of digging up a desirable location for the Sioux City team has been bothering the Western league executive since early last fall. Lincoln had the first chance, but the Nebraska capital dropped out of the running when it developed that the transfer plan involved an investment of $50,000. Muskogee, Okla., and Hutchinson, Kas., next were given consideration, but neither could toe the mark and Prexy Al, almost in despair, has been compelled to try his skill at locating the Mattick-McKenna aggregation in Pueblo, Colo.

Look Longingly to Lincoln.

Little Pittsburgh has been thrice tried, but found wanting, by the Western loop. Already tagged as a baseball graveyard, Pueblo can't stand the high salary pace of the Tearney league and the scheme to plant the Sioux City club in the Colorado smelter city is doomed to fail even before the transfer gets under way.

As a matter of fact, the magnates of the Western still hope that the Mattick-McKenna club may land in Lincoln. President Tearney admitted as much Thursday evening, when he tarried in Lincoln a few minutes while en route from Chicago to Pueblo.

"Geographically and logically, Lincoln belong in the Western league," President Tearney declared in a brief telephone talk with the sports editor of The Star. "We may put it over in Pueblo, but I confess that the league much prefers Lincoln. I wish there were some way to figure it out."

BULLDOG TOSSERS SHOW UP HUSKERS

Drake Basketball Quintet Compiles Easy Victory at Nebraska's Expense.

The University of Nebraska basketball team opened the home season Thursday night by losing to Drake university, 30 to 18. The game was a poor cage exhibition, the Cornhuskers making a miserable showing at locating the hoop, while the Bulldog forwards also missed numerous opportunities.

Captain Wilhelm featured the Drake play with four field goals and ten free throws. Usher, Klepser and Scott played the best basketball for the Cornhuskers, Usher counting three baskets during the period he was in the game.

Coach Owen Frank used eleven men during the game in any effort to find a combination capable of halting the Bulldogs. Frequent changes in the Nebraska lineup seemed to break up the team play and only for a brief period during the second half did the Huskers get to going.

Weak on Free Tosses.

Nebraska also made a miserable showing on free throws. Captain Warren caged three out of six and Cozier made one out of six chances. It was inability to count after fouls that enabled Drake to spurt ahead at the start of the contest.

After five minutes of scoreless play, Devine dribbled down the floor for a basket. Wilhelm sent the total to six points with a pair of free throws and a field goal. Riddlesberger counted a goal from the floor for Nebraska's first points and Warren made it 3-7 with a free throw.

Drake gradually lengthened its lead, until the Bulldogs were leading, 15 to 7, at half-time.

Nebraska did not threaten until the second period was half gone. Warren scored from the floor and Usher cut loose with three baskets, bringing Nebraska to within eight points of the Drake total. The rally was short-lived, for the Drake forwards began running wild behind the Nebraska guards and the fig was up. Summary:

LINCOLN TEAM TO PLAY YORK

Hubka's Quintet Will Test Strength With Lads of Capital City.

(Special to The Star.)

YORK, Neb., Jan. 18.—The undefeated York high school basketball team is ready to meet Lincoln tonight in one of the important basketball games on the home schedule. Coach Ernie Hubka has been sending the local cagesters through some stiff workouts, with the exception of "Pig" Grosshans all are in fit shape for the game. Grosshans will not be able to enter the game because of illness.

York defeated Friend last week, 26 to 9. In this game, Calvert, with six field goals, led the scoring for the local five. The probable lineup for tonight's game:

Lincoln—		—York
Brown (c)	f.	Neal
Parshall	f.	Calvert
S. Lewis	c.	Morgan
McIntyre	g.	Ostbloom (c)
Olds	g.	Sprague

Hastings Churches Denounce Sunday Baseball Games

(Special to The Star.)

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 19.—Members of the Interchurch Reserve of Hastings have dealt a blow in the solar plexus of Sunday baseball in this county. They have passed a resolution condemning the playing of commercialized Sunday baseball and asked the board of supervisors to rescind the action of about two years ago that allows games to be played in the county.

Sunday ball games are already prohibited in Hastings, but the State league Cubs were able last summer to maintain their position in the league by playing just outside the city limits.

If the county board get in accordance with the Interchurch Reserve resolution, it would force Hastings to withdraw from the State league, as the management, if denied the patronage and income from Sunday games, could not possibly make both ends meet.

Cue Champion to Show in Lincoln

RALPH GREENLEAF.

The world's champion pocket billiard player, Ralph Greenleaf of Monmouth, Ill., is scheduled to display his wizardry with the cue in Lincoln Saturday, giving two exhibitions at the Brunswick Parlors, 135 South Eleventh street. The world's title-holder in pocket billiards will compete with Tom Hueston, former champion in pocket billiards and at the three-cushion game, in two matches, each of 125 points. The Greenleaf-Hueston contests are scheduled for 3 and 8 p. m.

Greenleaf, without question, is the most expert pocket billiardist in the history of the cue sport. For three straight years, the Monmouth wizard has won the international tournament for the world's championship, breaking all previous records, both in exhibition and championship play. Greenleaf's best mark in exhibition competition is a run of 226. Hueston's high mark is 153.

Greenleaf and Hueston are touring the west. They competed Thursday in Omaha and Friday in Sioux City.

Schuyler Starts Cage Season With Pair of Defeats

SCHUYLER, Neb., Jan. 19. — Schuyler high school has started the basketball season with a pair of defeats. Fremont trimmed the locals, 37 to 4. David City won from Schuyler, 22 to 4. Coach E. M. Rosenquist has only two letter men in suit and the squad is green.

The veterans are Ronald McKenzie, captain, and Jack Riley. The promising new material includes Jack Dwonak, James Higgins and Randolph Grow. The schedule:

January 19, Columbus at Columbus; Jan. 26, Albion at Albion; Jan. 27, Genoa Indians at Genoa; Feb. 2, Creighton Prep at Schuyler; Feb. 8, West Point at West Point; Feb. 9, Norfolk at Norfolk; Feb. 14, David City at Schuyler; Feb. 23, Columbus at Schuyler; March 2, Genoa Indians at Schuyler; March 3, Wahoo at Wahoo.

Double Victory For Syracuse Hi On Dunbar Court

SYRACUSE, Neb., Jan. 19.—Syracuse high won over Dunbar high in basketball at Dunbar this week, 38 to 25. The Syracuse Reserves defeated the Dunbar Reserves, 25 to 24.

Syracuse high has won eight out of nine games this season, the only defeating being sustained at Eagle. The schedule for the remainder of the season follows:

GRAPPLERS IN FINAL WORKOUT

Nebraska Wrestlers Finish Preparations for Match With Northwestern.

Dr. R. G. Clapp, head wrestling coach at the University of Nebraska, sent the Husker grapplers through their final workout this afternoon in preparation for the match with Northwestern university Saturday night. The wrestling meet will follow the Oklahoma-Nebraska basketball game and will probably open at 8:45 p. m., the cage contest starting shortly at 7 o'clock.

The Northwestern mat artists lost to Iowa State college in a Thursday night meet and are expected to arrive in Lincoln early Saturday afternoon. The two teams will weigh in at 4 p. m.

Nebraska lost to Northwestern at Evanston last season, 39 to 20, Captain Hathaway tossing Pucelik in the bout that decided the meet. In this meet Troutman, Thomas and Whaley of Nebraska won their matches.

The members of the Northwestern squad who have been showing class this season are Hinnes in the 125-pound division and Hathaway in the 158-pound group. Hathaway is a brother of the Northwestern wrestling captain of last season who won from Reed in the 158-pound class and Pucelik in the heavyweight group last winter.

O. B. Anderson of the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. will officiate as referee in Saturday's meet. A fall will count five points and a decision three points. The grapplers will mix in twelve-minute bouts. In case the wrestlers are in a tie at the end of the twelve minutes, two extra three-minute periods will be wrestled.

METHODISTS WIN OVER MIDLANDERS

McCandless' Tossers Defeat Lutherans By Five-Point Margin.

(Special to The Star.)

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 19.—Nebraska Wesleyan opened the state conference basketball campaign here last night with a victory over Midland college, 22 to 17. The Methodists outplayed the Lutherans and held a 9 to 7 lead at the end of the first period.

Calvert led the scoring for the Methodist tossers. He slipped past the Lutheran guards for three baskets and counted four free throws out of nine chances. Hurlburt, Wesleyan center, played a good game. He smothered Lundberg, Fremont center, who failed to score a point, while Hurlburt scored three times from the floor.

Horn was high point man for Midland college. He scored three field goals and counted on nine of thirteen chances on free throws. Summary:

Loup City Quintet Defeats Dannebrog

(Special to The Star.)

LOUP CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—Loup City high school's basketball team scored another victory Monday night when the locals defeated Dannebrog high by a score of 32 to 17.

Features of the game was the playing of Reed and Januleweez of Loup City. Each scored twelve points. The strong defense of Loup City during the second period was another feature. Both teams were weak on offense.

Jacobsen was the main scorer for Dannebrog. He counted eleven of their points.

HIGH QUINTETS IN DOUBLE CARD

Aggies to Clash With Friend; Temple vs. Waverly at Armory.

A double cage program is carded at the university armory this evening. The Aggie high cagesters will meet the Friend tossers and the Teachers' college five will clash with Waverly in the basketball bill which is scheduled to get under way at 7 p. m.

The Friend tossers who will invade Lincoln tonight to meet the Ags have been making a good showing this season, having played York a good game last week. The Waverly quintet has also been compiling a good record.

Rock County Hi Wins Two Games

(Special to The Star.)

SPRINGVIEW, Neb., Jan. 19—Rock county high school won two basketball games here this week. The Rock county high school girls defeated the Springview boys, 27 to 4. The Rock county high school boys defeated the Springview boys' team, 15 to 12.

McCook Cage Five Victors at Trenton

(Special to The Star.)

MCCOOK, Neb., Jan. 19.—The McCook high school basketball team defeated Trenton last night, 17 to 16. The game played at Trenton and the low score was in a measure due to the small floor.

McCook plays Hartley tonight on the McCook court.

Hartley-Russell On Husker Squad

Bob Russell, two-year varsity basketball man, and "Chick" Hartley, 1922 Cornhusker football captain, joined the University of Nebraska basketball squad Friday afternoon.

Hartley and Russell stayed out of the cage sport early in the season until the scholastic examination period was over.

Pierce Loses Two Opening Contests

PIERCE, Neb., Jan. 19.—Pierce high school is handicapped this season in its basketball workouts by not having a gymnasium in which to practice. Pierce high has had two practice scrimmages at Osmond, a town fifteen miles away.

Creighton defeated Pierce at Osmond, 28 to 10. Norfolk defeated Pierce at Norfolk, 18 to 16. The schedule follows:

Jan. 19, Madison; Jan. 26, Tilden; Jan. 31, Verdigre; Feb. 5, Neligh; Feb. 9, 10, Gregory S. D.; Feb. 16, open; Feb. 22, 23, 24, Northeast Nebraska tournament.

EDGERTON TO AID INQUIRY

Aurora Man Appointed By Attorney General to Assist in Investigation of University of Nebraska Expenditures.

COMMITTEE STARTS ITS WORK AT ONCE

Will Receive Reports From University Heads Not Later Than February 1, and Make Findings a Week Later.

The legislative inquiry into state university expenditures began Thursday morning and will continue from day to day until it is finished, according to the announcement made by Chairman Auten of the special house committee in charge of the probe. He and the other members—Messrs. Garber, Gallagher, Orr and C. L. Yochum—will devote as much time to it as they can spare from their regular duties in the chamber.

Frank E. Edgerton of Aurora, has been named by Attorney General Spillman as a special assistant representing the state legal department to help the committee in its work. This was done in conformity with a resolution adopted by the house Thursday on Mr. Auten's motion.

At the committee's request, two of the regular house employes were assigned Friday morning to aid in the investigation. They are F. M. Stapleton, accountant, and Mrs. Grace Erkskine, stenographer.

The investigating committee is to receive reports from the heads of university departments not later than February 1, and will report its findings to the house by February 7, under the terms of the motion creating it.

ALLEGE DANCER VICTIM SLAYER

Two Men Held In Connection With Death of Fritzi Mann.

(Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 19.—R. V. B. Clark, held in connection with the mysterious death of Fritzi Mann, classic dancer, whose body was found on the beach near here Monday is believed by police to be the man who had accompanied the dancer to a cottage in the LaJolla Sunday night and registered as "William Johnstone and wife."

A. E. Kern, owner of the cottage, after seeing a photograph, said there was a remarkable resemblance between Clark and the man he had known as "Johnstone," but said he would not be postive until he had met Clark in person when the latter is brought back from Los Angeles by police today.

Dr. L. L. Jacobs, health service physician who was taken into custody yesterday because of his known friendship for Miss Mann was still in custody and the police are making a careful check on his story.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19.—Roger V. B. Clark, motion picture director, taken into custody here on suspicion of the murder of Fritzi Mann, dancer, was expected to arrive today in San Diego and there to re-enact his movements the night before the girl's body was found at Torrey Pines last Monday.

Chief of Police James Patrick and two other officers of San Diego, arrived here last night and talked with Clark for several hours They were quoted before starting homeward with their prisoner as stating he had offered what appeared to be a "perfect alibi."

Chinese Lad Wins Legion Contest for American Scholars

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 19.—Ah Sing Ching of Ewa Oahua T. H., a 14-year old boy of Chinese extraction, won first place in the American Legion's annual essay contest for American school children on the subject "How can the American Legion best serve the nation."

Second place in the contest, which was open to all school children between the ages of 12 and 18, was awarded to Miss Pauline Virginia Chastain of Indianapolis.

National prizes are First, $750; second, $500, and third $250, the money to be used as scholarships in any college or university. They were awarded by Hanford MacNider, former national commander of the Legion.

Helicopter Flies Successfully With Two Passengers

DAYTON, O., Jan. 19.—For what is said to be the first time in history, a two-man helicopter flight was made today at McCook air field here.

The Debothezat helicopter, invented and built at McCook field, was used with Major T. H. Bane, former McCook field commandant, and Art Smith, veteran civilian flyer, as passenger it ascended about three feet vertically and descended without trouble several times. The tests are said to mark an important step in development of the helicopter.

WALLY REID, STAR OF SILVER SCREEN DEAD IN HOSPITAL

"Play Boy of Movies" Loses Battle to Regain Lost Health.

End of Hard Struggle Comes Thursday Afternoon—Messages Pour Into Home.

(International News Service.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 19.—"Tell them, mama, I have won. I have come back."

Thus in death did the "play boy of the movies" win victory.

They were the last words of Wallace Reid, stricken motion picture star uttered to his wife, Dorothy Davenport, during the last minutes of consciousness Tuesday before the coma which ended in death late yesterday had enveloped him.

He referred to his battle against drugs.

"Wally," as he was affectionately known in the studios and to millions of film fans, died unaware that the world knew of his battle against the narcotic monster, but his last conscious thoughts were that his friends should know that even in death he had won.

The studio world that knew Reid as a friend and companion, and the film-loving public that delighted in Reid's effervescent portrayal of youth in heroic screen roles, joined in sorrowing today over his passing.

Messages Pour Into Home.

Messages of sympathy poured into the De Longpre avenue Reid home, where Dorothy Davenport, his widow, is in a virtual state of collapse as a result of her overpowering grief and from the strain of the months' long vigil she had kept with "Wally" in aiding him in his fight, first against drugs and then to regain his health.

The messages came from stars and fans alike—many from Europe.

Carl Laemnle, president of Universal, with which "Wally" worked in the early days, telegraphed:

"The motion pictures are suffering a great loss."

"This is one of the saddest things I have ever known," said Theodore Roberts, who had appeared as "Wally's irascible father in countless pictures and between whom had sprung up an affection almost like father and son.

Were Very Close Friends.

"I have known 'Wally' since he was two years old, then a little blonde-haired baby just learning to prattle and walk. Among a host of friends I have on the other side, 'Wally' is one of the closest and best thought of."

"My heart goes out in sympathy to the widow and mother of Wallace Reid" said Mary Pickford. "His death is a great tragedy because I know he would have lived down every mistake he made. He was a charming boy with great genius."

Funeral services will be held at an Episcopal church tomorrow with joint service by the Episcopal church and Elks lodge No. 99 of which "Wally" was a member.

The exact hour will be announced later. As a solemn tribute to the loveable actor, Hollywood's motion picture studios will be closed tomorrow.

Today Mrs. Reid faces another great ordeal, that of telling little Billy, the actor's son, and Betty, their adopted daughter, that their daddy is dead News of his death was kept from them yesterday, and while their mother wept in her room with her great sorrow last night, the children played and talked of the day when "Daddy" would come back to them.

Aware End Was Near.

The famous actor is believed to have been fully aware of the fact that the end was near, for he realized his weight of 200 pounds had been diminished to 120 pounds, but his iron will and determination to live and "come back" staved off death for weeks.

Reid's body will be cremated in compliance with his oft-repeated request.

His physicians announced today that the direct course of his death was hypostatic congestion of the lungs and urenal suppression, which developed a slow poison.

Her friends expressed serious concern for the condition of Mrs. Reid today.

Beautiful Love Story.

The love story of "Dot" Davenport and "Wally" was more charming and beautiful than any he ever enacted on the screen. It was at the threshold of success that their romance came Miss Davenport had already "arrived." She came to the movies and he was assigned as her director. He fell in love, wooed her impetuously and won her much in the same dashing fashion that he won the heroines of the screen. They were married eight years ago. Miss Davenport gave up her stage and screen career to make the Reid home one of the most delightful in Hollywood. She was with her husband constantly during his fight, bravely and without reserve gave the news to the world of his battle, and night and day nursed him in his last illness. He died in her arms.

Thoukhts Were On Work.

Almost until the last Reid's thoughts were centered upon returning to work. In moments of delirium he would call for his chauffeur to take him to the studio But a few days before his death he was visited by Ted Hayes, trainer to Jack Dempsey, and who had been Reid's athletic aviser. Reid wanted to know when Jack Dempsey would box again and had Hayes play on the phonograph saxaphone records—"Wally's" favorite instrument.

Work ceased at the Lask studio, where Reid was employed, as soon as word of his death was received and the entire film world is expected to cease activities Monday as a final mark of respect.

The pretentious Reid home is reported to have been slightly mortgaged during the last days of Reid's illness. However, the star is said to have had $70,000 life insurance.

Hays Expresses Regret.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Keen regret at the passing of Wallace Reid, film actor, was expressed here today by Will H. Hays, "boss of the movie industry." Hays recently visited Reid in the sanitarium.

"I am very very sorry," said Hays, just before leaving the capital for New York. "I was a great admirer of Reid, particularly on account of the great courage he displayed in his losing fight against a complicated illness. I have genuine regret at his untimely death."

Hays declined to comment on the move to clean up the film industry of its drug users.

EVE, OF MAINE EDEN FAME, TAKES FRENCH LEAVE FROM HER "ADAM"

Carl A. and Mrs. Sutter, better known as the "Adam and Eve" of the Maine "Garden of Eden."

'Adam and Eve" Sutter, who almost captured a monopoly on the publicity calcium when they buried themselves in the Maine woods as their "Garden of Eden" to live as did their namesakes, have come to the parting of ways. At least "Eve" departed, "Adam" says, and with her went the bankroll they had accumulated, back to nature exploits. The Sutters were with a theatrical troup at the time of "Eve's" disappearance. Sutter says that Prince Lazuli, a "master mind," also with the company, disappeared at the same time as "Eve" and the bankroll. "Eve's" friends call the charge ridiculous.

NOTED FORESTER TO LECTURE HERE

H. N. Wheeler of Denver Will Spend Three Days Next Week In Lincoln.

H. N. Wheeler of the U. S. Forest service will be in Lincoln on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 25, 26 and 27, to deliver adresses before various organizations and clubs.

Mr. Wheeler is chief of the office of public relations of the federal forestry service with headquarters in Denver. He is delivering numerous popular lectures in various parts of the state designed to inform the people about the work of the forest service in general and about their tree planting and forestation program. He has much to say about the tree planting project which has been under way for several years in the Nebraska sand hills.

Mr. Wheeler has had many years experience in forestry work and he is an interesting speaker. His lectures are illustrated by fine pictures, many of which are beautifully colored. Reports from other cities and towns in the state where Mr Wheeler has appeared are very complimentary in regard to the manner in which he is presenting his subject.

Mr. Wheeler's lectures are upon live topics of fundamental interest to all citizens and they are given free of charge. It is hoped that he may be given a wide hearinb in Lincoln. Several engagements have already been made for Mr. Wheeler including hours before the high school, woman's club, Wesleyan University, etc. A full calendar of Mr Wheeler's lectures will be published later. Any club or organization in the city which would like to hear Mr. Wheeler may arrange for an hour, preferably on Thursday or Saturday, or Friday afternoon or evening. Such dates may be made through Professor R. J. Pool, at the University who was requested by the U. S. Forest service to secure the periods for Mr. Wheeler in Lincoln.

FARM BUREAU NOTES.

A. A. Horn was re-elected president and Mrs. Henry Hunt secretary of Lancaster precinct of the Lancaster County Farm bureau. A program of work was developed and some of the projects to be taken up this year are a soil saving dam demonstration, a dress form demonstration, poultry culling demonstration, a gopher eradication project, and boys and girls clubs in poultry, pig, dairy calf and baby beef work.

The annual achievement day of the Martel Pig club was held this week at Martel. The program consisted of songs by the club, recitation by Oscar Beete, talks by County Agent Montgomery and the club leader, William Betten, and movies. William Moore, cashier of the Martel State bank, presented each of the boys in the club with a $5 gold piece. Plans for 1923 are to include a baby beef club in the work. The members are Oscar and Elmer Betten, Raymond and Lewis Frohm and Oska Loos.

Buda precinct of the Lancaster County Farm bureau will hold an organization meeting next Thursday evening at the Lauterbach school house to elect officers and outline a program of work for 1923.

Pawnee Hens Have High Egg Average

(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—John Brewer of this city who owns one of the finest flocks of pure bred White Wyandote chickens in Nebraska, has a group of pullets who have broken a state record in laying. During October, 1922, one pullet laid thirty-one eggs while the hen taking the state record in Missouri during the same month, laid twenty-eight eggs. Five of the Brewer's hens laid 133 eggs during the month, while the prize group of five in Missouri laid ninety-nine. Brewer has a large collection of ribbons.

BABE KEEPS BUSY TAKING OFF FAT

Ruth Down Twenty Pounds In Weight as Result of Life On Farm.

(Associated Press.)

SOUTH SUDBURY, Mass., Jan. 19—Babe Ruth is coming back strong to regain his honors as the homerun king. He says so. He looks it.

A gentleman farmer, sowing seeds of hard work, regular hours and simple food that he may reap a harvest of hits—more especially of home runs—the one-time slugger extraordinary is wintering in this snow-piled New England farming region, seeking to lay a firm foundation for his "comeback."

If appearance may be taken at face value, he is doing it. If confidence may be taken at its own appraisal, Babe is well on the way to making good his pledge to the kids of New York that he would be back at the top of the home run heap this year.

Takes Off Twenty Pounds.

Twenty pounds taken off under a regime of splitting wood, setting up exercises, hiking and, in recent weeks snow shoveling, is the measure of Ruth's conditioning process to date, together with an appearance of fitness that is its outward mark. But the Babe is not content He weighed 235 pounds when he left Broadway for his farmhouse here. He weighs 215 pounds today. He says he expects to be down to 205 when the season opens, and a two weeks' stay at Hot Springs, Ark., is likely to bring him close to that goal.

More Work in Sight.

"I am back now where I was three years ago," Ruth said in discussing the success of his efforts to reduce weight as a condition to increasing the power and speeding the drive, which, with sharpness of eye, are the components of his hitting prowess.

"I'll have to work pretty hard to get any more off, but I'm going to do it. A month from now I'll be in Hot Springs. Meantime I have a lot of ice to cut and haul and this driving a horse does not let one get as soft as whirling the wheel of an automobile. I ought to be close to 205 when I report to the Yankees at New Orleans and that is my best weight."

Plan Stay at Hot Springs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—To "boil out" in preparation for the hard siege of spring preparation, part of the New York American league baseball team will go to Hot Springs, Ark., before reporting to the regular training camp at New Orleans the first week in March. Players expected to go to Hot Springs include Shawkey, Mays, Jones, Murray, Ruth, Schang, Scott, Pipp, Witt and Dugan.

NEW BOY SCOUTS.

(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 19.—At the regular business meeting of the Pawnee Boy Scout troop, six new members were initiated. The troop now rates a ribbon from President Harding, which goes to troops meeting certain stiff requirements. It will be carried on the flag staff. More than half the members are second class scouts or better.

MAGNATES WEARY OF BENTON CASE

Big Leagues Would Prefer to Forget All About the St. Paul Southpaw.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

(International News Service.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The strange case of Rube Benton versus organized baseball is again coming to a boil and is soon to be given the rough-dry treatment and subsequently, so we are given to understand, a thorough airing.

Coincident with Judge Landis' reopened investigation of the details in Chicago comes the information that Garry Herrimann is quietly sounding out sentiment on the Benton matter among brother magnates with the idea of making an issue of the case at the February meeting of the two major leagues.

Garry Looks to McGraw.

It is said that Herrman has every hope of lining up John McGraw on his side of the controversy. McGraw has already declared that he knows of no reason by which Benton should not be allowed to ply his left-handed trade in the major leagues, and if he can be prevailed upon to cast his vote to this effect Herrman believes that other club owners may be influenced to do likewise.

If the latter dared to speak their minds, they could give an abiding reason why they cannot and will not vote for Benton's return, unless additional testimony of a favorable turn is brought to bear on the situation.

Babe's Case a Hot Iron.

Innocent or guilty, they would prefer to Rube Benton and his troubles drop quietly out of sight He is alleged to have had guilty knowledge of the plot to toss the 1919 world's series and to have capitalized the same. This is only an allegation, due to the fact that organized baseball cannot afford to press the issue further.

It cannot afford to bring the Benton case before the public because it will lose favor, no matter what decision is made. If he is cleared of the charges, the public will be divided into two camps—those who think that Benton was greatly imposed upon, and those who think that Rube was white-washed. If he is proved guilty, organized baseball will be placed in the embarrassing position of explaining why Benton was permitted to pitch for the St. Paul club of the American association, in spite of the fact that his ethics were under suspicion.

Landis Conducts Inquiry.

(Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Refusal of clubs in the major leagues to sign Rube Benton, former Giant pitcher was before baseball fans again today when it became known that K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, recently had questioned Art Fletcher, new manager of the Philadelphia National league club, regarding Benton's story of a bribe offer made him to "throw" a game here several seasons ago when Fletcher was shortstop for the Giants. Commissioner Landis said Fletcher told substantially the same story as Benton.

Golf Champion of Great Britain to Compete in U. S. A.

(Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—Captain Ernest F. Carter, British golfer and winner of four national tournaments in the British isles since the war, today announced he would enter both the American open and national amateur championships this year.

White Sox Acquire Honolulu Pitcher

(Associated Press.)

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 19.—Neil Blaisdell, who formerly pitched at St Louis college here, has been signed for a tryout with the Chicago White Sox, according to J. A. Beaven, local sport promoter, in an address made at a banquet given the major league players who have just returned from their tour of the orient. It was stated Blaisdell probably would leave for Chicago May 1.

Sutherland Signs To Coach at Pitt

(Associated Press.)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 19.—Dr. John B. "Jock" Sutherland, former head coach at Lafayette university, and former Pitt. U. player, has signed a contract to coach 'varsity football at the University of Pittsburgh, for three years, succeeding Glenn S. Warner, who will resign after 1923 to coach at Leland Stanford university.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.

Further recovery in prices took place at the opening of today's stock market. The demand was particularly effective as in steel, oil and equipment shares, although specialties continued to record the largest gains. Eastman Kodak was pushed up 1⅞ and DuPont 1. United States Steel common opened ⅝c higher and was followed into higher ground by Crucible, Midvale and Gulf States Steels. Early losses were limited to very small fractions.

The gains were extended as trading progressed, New York Airbrake, Crucible, Pan-American, Baldwin, People's Gas, Mack, United States Rubber, Public Service of New York, Timken Roller Bearing, Goodrich and California Petroleum, advanced 1 to 1¾ points. Foreign exchanged opened firm, demand sterling being quoted at $4.86½, or nearly 1c above last night's close. French, Belgian and Italian rates also stiffened, while marks rallied to .0042c as against yesterday's extreme low at .0042c.

Advances in a number of specialties some of which are controlled by pool operations, imparted a strong tone to the forenoon market. Shares of companies which show large current earnings in which there is a possibility of more favorable dividend action were in good demand by operators on the long side. Short interests showed signs of nervousness when the free selling of several issues failed to arrest the upward trend. Famous Players, which particularly weak, falling 3 points to the lowest price of the year while Anaconda, American Can and Baldwin also yielded a point or more under yesterday's final figures. A good inquiry was noted for certain of the independent steels, equipments, public utilities, rubbers, motor accessories, tobaccos and a long list of miscellaneous issues, which advanced 1 to 4 points. Railroad shares were virtually neglected except for advances of 1 to 1¾ points in St. Paul preferred, "Katy" preferred and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico.

Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Speculation was quiet in the afternoon, but prices made further headway on the basis of the liquidated condition of the market and the inability of the bears to halt the rise by selling special stocks. Baldwin, one of the early weak features, rebounded to a point above yesterday's close, while American Can and Anaconda also recovered fully. A varied list of industrials participated in the afternoon advance. Tidewater Oil rising 5 points, Kelsey Wheel, 4, Sloss-Sheffield Steel, 3¾ and Allied Chemical 2 points, but Consolidated Cigar and Stewart Warner Speedometer dropped 2¾ each.

BUTTER—Steady.
EGGS—Easier.
CHEESE—Firm.
POULTRY—Alive, steady; prices unchanged; dressed, firm; western chickens, 21@46c; old roosters, 18@22c; turkeys, No. 1, 42@45c.

New York Sugar.

SUGAR—The raw sugar market was steady early today. No sales were reported and prices were unchanged at 5¾ for Cuban spot and freight, equal to 5.02 for centrifugal.

Raw sugar futures opened unchanged to 2 points lower, but there was a good demand from shorts and trade interests and prices rallied, and at midday, were 1 to 2 points net higher.

The market for refined was 10 points lower, in sympathy with the decline in the spot market. The granulated is now listed at 6.45c. The reduction failed to inspire any increase in the demand and business was light.

Refined futures nominal.

GRAIN MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 19.

WHEAT—More favorable political news from abroad, together with firmness in Liverpool quotations, gave the wheat market a steady undertone here today during the early dealings. Strength in cotton and stock markets also had some effect, as did Washington reports, which expressed belief that the first of farm credits bill would receive a favorable vote today. Trading, however, was of a local character at the start and the market ran into selling orders with houses with eastern connections in the lead. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to ⅛c higher, with May $1.18⅝@1.19 and July $1.13⅛@1.13⅝, was followed by a slight setback, then a moderate rally on all deliveries.

Subsequently, enlarged commission house buying which was based on drought news and which found offerings light, brought out a material upturn in prices, but then the gains were lost as a result of renewed general selling. The close was easy at the same as yesterday's finish to ⅛c lower, with May $1.18⅝@1.18⅞, and July $1.13@1.13⅜.

CORN—Corn and oats were dull, with a light trade. After starting ⅛ to ¼c off with May 72⅝@73⅛, the corn market underwent a slight general decline and later recovered a little.

Later the market continued to be governed by wheat, but kept within a narrow range. The close was weak, ⅛@⅜c net lower, May, 72⅝@73⅜c.

OATS—Oats started unchanged to ⅛c up, May 45⅛c, and later suffered a slight general sag.

PROVISIONS—Higher quotations for hogs gave a lift to provisions.

Stone Charges Laxity.
(Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the engineers, declared here today that "poor engineering" was the cause in many instances for the burning of bridges on the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad—where a citizens' committee has organized to investigate and prosecute acts of sabotage.

Relief engineers, replacing the strikers, had caused the burning in many instances—Stone said, through neglect of fire pans, causing live coals to fall on the bridge timbers as the train passed over them.

M. COUE'S TEACHER EAGER TO GREET HIS FAMOUS PUPIL

Prof. Sidney A. Weltmer.

Prof. Sidney Weltmer, president of the Weltmer Institute of Nevada, is looking forward to a visit from Mons. Coue, French exponent of auto-suggestion. It was from Professor Weltmer that Coue received his first idea of healing suggestion. It was through a correspondence course.

FRENCH CARRY OUT THREAT TO TAKE COAL PITS

control commission adopts an optimistic attitude asserting the German will be the first to suffer.

The French assert they are doing everything in their power to provide food for the workers but that the embarrassments put forward may render their task impossible.

In this event, they declare, France will hold Berlin responsible before the world for any misfortunes that may befall the Ruhr population.

RUHR BASIN UNDER THUMB OF FRENCH

Coal Mines, Customs, and Banks Seized Along With All Shipping.

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 19.—Prussian state owned coal mines were requisitioned by the French today. The French have warned the miners, railway men and steel and iron workers not to strike.

The local branch of the Reichsbank (National State bank) was occupied by the French today.

Will Collect All Duties.

COBLENZ, Jan. 19.—The interallied Rhineland commission today ordered German customs officials to place themselves under authority of the French and to obey all orders issued by French officers. The commissions' order stated that the German state finance department now has no control over customs officials in the Rhineland.

The commission is studying plans for establishing a customs barrier between the occupied zones and the rest of Germany so that the allies can secure all the duties paid upon goods.

General De Goutte, French military governor of the occupied zone, is preparing to seize all taxes as well as customs, to exploit the German state-owned forests and to run the railways and river steamship lines.

French officers have already taken over the offices of the coal mines owned by the State of Prussia, it was explained that this was merely a requisition, not a confiscation.

Requisition of railway rolling stock and river barges continues.

Report Is Denied.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The German embassy denied this afternoon that an official German mission is coming to London to ask Great Britain to intervene in the Rhineland.

Are In Confusion Without Leader

CANTON, Jan. 18.—The southern capital, full of victorious troops, generals and lesser officials, who entered the city yesterday fighting their way across a province in the interests of Sun Yat-Sen, deposed president of the south China republic, was today without a government and the situation had developed into one of confusion.

Says Rates Did Not Cause Hardships

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The progressive discount rate adopted by the federal reserve board during the period of depression inflicted no hardships, according to a report made to the senate in reply to a senate resolution asking for data on the operations of the federal reserve bank of Atlanta, St. Louis, Dallas and Kansas City.

City Briefs

Call on Governor.—Major General George B. Duncan of Omaha, commander of the seventh corps area, United States army, called at the State house to pay his respects to Governor Bryan Friday morning. He was accompanied by Colonel Eton and other members of his staff. The visitors afterward had a conference with Adjutant General H. J. Paul, who with Col. McDaniels and Major Stein, met them at the capitol.

PASTOR GOES TO WAYNE.
(Special to The Star.)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Jan. 18.—Rev. F. K. Allen, pastor of the First Baptist church here for the past four years, has resigned and will remove with his family to Wayne, where he will become pastor of the Baptist church. He will leave the latter part of this month. He will preach his farewell sermon next Sabbath.

HERE ARE SOME BARGAINS

We have a stock of new truck seats and cushions which have been removed from new trucks in installing cab bodies

Each seat is complete and ready for installation, and includes the box, two seat cushions with upholstered back; equipped with substantial springs, heavily padded with horse hair; upholstering is heavy weather-proof iron cloth and will wear better than leather.

These are already to use on trucks and wagons, and in cases where the whole seat is not needed we specially recommend these cushions for porch swings, chairs and lawn seats.

These bargains are going at a very low price.

SENATE PASSES BILL SLASHING CODE SALARIES

Opposite Action In Face of Bryan Recommendation to Eliminate Departments.

Wiltse Measure Reducing Pay of State Officers Goes to Third Reading.

In the face of Governor Bryan's recommendation that the code departments be eliminated, the senate Friday morning passed the Reed bill, S. F. No. 1, which would reduce the salaries of the six code secretaries by $1,000 to $2,500, with the emergency clause. There were only two dissenting votes, Osborne of Scotts Bluff and Thielen of Platte, democrats, neither of whom offered any remarks.

Senate File 12, by Wiltse, providing for generous reduction in other general state officers' salaries was pushed through to third reading. As amended, it will leave the governor's salary at $7,500, place that of the supreme court members at $5,500, and other constitutional officers and district officers at $4,000.

Senator Wiltse explained that as the governor is the highest state officer, with manifold duties, and elected for only two years, his salary should be left untouched. Justice of the supreme court, he pointed out, are elected for six years, and so escape the expense of biennial campaigns, besides attaining a high standing in their profession by reason of having served on the supreme bench.

S. F. 11, by Good, reducing car inspection fees from $1 to $3, was also passed by the committee of the whole. Its introducer explained that the lower fee is adequate to care for all expense connected with the inspection work. S. F. 30, by Rickard, to place the $5 dog tax in the general fund, S. F. 15, also by Rickard, reducting salaries of judge and constitutional officers and increasing the yearly stipend of the lieutenant governor, were adversly reported by committees, and indefinitely postponed.

Senate File 6, Wiltse's measure to require deputies, clerks and assistants of county officers to assist other county officials when necessary, was amended to apply only to assistants and clerks, made non-effective in Douglas county, and advanced to third reading with the emergency clause.

Seven new bills were introduced, and the senate adjourned until 2 p. m. Monday. A digest of the bills follows:

Friday Senate Bills.

S. F. 76, by Thielen—Authorizes state treasurer to invest state funds in delinquent tax titles on tracts exceeding 40 cultivated acres. Interest rate to be 10 per cent per annum.

S. 77, by Larkins—Makes stringent regulations governing sale and use of revolvers and pistols. Commission of a crime while armed with revolver carrier additional penalty of 5 to 10 years in penitentiary. Life imprisonment for fourth offense. Strict licensing of dealers.

S. F. 78, by Reed—Compels county boards to publish personal tax roll of each tax payer, tangible and intangible property to be listed in separate columns, in one legal newspaper in or nearest the precinct.

S. F. 79, by Barr—Makes it mandatory for two railroads reaching within 500 feet of the same point to construct a connecting switch upon application of any interested person, whether the state railway commission deems it practicable or not. Bill is designed to meet the Wymore-Blue Springs situation.

S. F. 80, by Wiltse—Requires advertisements of sales under execution to be published in newspapers for four successive weeks before the sale, instead of 30 days.

S. F. 81, by Wiltse—Notice of foreclosures of chattel mortgages shall be published for three successive weeks before the day of sale or where there is no newspaper, by posting notices at least 20 days before the sale.

S. F. 82, by Cooper—In replevin actions started in the justice court and appealed to the county court, when it is found the appraised value of the property exceeds the jurisdiction of the county court, that court can not render judgment, but must certify proceedings to the district court.

STATE RANGES IN GOOD CONDITION

Improvement Made In Nebraska Pastures In the Sand Hills.

(Associated Press.)

DENVER, Jan. 18.—Range conditions in seventeen western states improved one per cent during December, averaging eighty-five per cent of normal on January 1, according to reports of the field statisticians of the United States division of crop and livestock estimates made public here yesterday. States in which improvement was made in conditions included Nebraska and while a declining condition was noted in North Dakota and South Dakota, and a number of other states, the report declared exceptionally good pastures and ranges were reported in the sand hills of Nebraska. Throughout the west, hay and feed supplies are generally reported sufficient for winter use and in some sections including Kansas and part of Nebraska, are abundant.

The condition of cattle in the seventeen states averaged 90 per cent on January 1 compared with 89 per cent on December 1 while sheep averaged 94 per cent on January 1, compared with 93 one month earlier.

The reported loss of cattle for the year ranged from 2.6 per cent of the number on hand January 1, 1922, in Nebraska to 10 per cent in New Mexico, while the reported year's losses of sheep averaged from 7 per cent to 13.8. The calf crop for the year generally was from 75 to 80 per cent of the number of breeding cows on hand January 1, 1922, and the lamb crop generally from 80 to 90 per cent of the number of breeding ewes.

Distemper Among Dogs Attributed To Mild Weather

An epidemic of running over dogs seems to have struck Lincoln, according to C. E. McClain, superintendent of the Humane society who has answered several calls daily for such causes recently. Generally the animals have to be killed and several fine dogs have been injured this week and killed of necessity.

There is also an epidemic of distemper among these animals, due largely to the absence of cold weather and snow, the superintendent says, and this has killed many dogs or left them crippled during the past month or two. Owners of dogs are urged for this reason to keep their pets closely shut in or tied at home to prevent the spreading of the distemper.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The storm area has moved from Lake Superior beyond the limits of the map. The northern area of high pressure has moved southeastward and covers the Mississippi valley and eastern districts. A narrow trough of moderately low pressure covers the north Pacific coast and the barometer has fallen in Arizona and the southwest. Light rain or snow has fallen in Oregon, Washington, Montana, northern Michigan and the St. Lawrence valley, but generally fair, pleasant weather has prevailed.

Agricultural News of Nebraska Counties

DAKOTA CITY.—An average of 42 bushels of corn per acre, the highest of any county in the state, is the yield of Dakota county for last year, according to Agricultural statistics of Nebraska for 1922. The county had an average of 24 bushels of winter wheat per acre, with none higher, although three other counties reached this same figure. Spring wheat dropped to 13 bushels per acre. Fourteen counties were reported higher. In oats, Dakota county had an average yield of but 27 bushels. Fourteen counties exceeded this yield, Dakota county stood next to the top in potato yield, with an average of 131 bushels. Scottsbluff county was first with an average yield of 144 bushels. Dakota county's alfalfa yield was 32 tons per acre, which was the highest yield reported.

Planning Ahead.

WEST POINT.—Farmers in Cuming county are already planning their crop systems for next year, according to county extension agent Kenneth C. Fouts, who says that requests have been made for information on Kanred, wheat, soy beans, sudan grass and seed corn. Sudan grass is giving good results for hog pastures under Cuming county conditions.

BoBys and Girls are plentiful in the county who would join calf, pig, poultry, canning and sewing clubs, but club leaders are needed badly.

Farmers' Meetings.

WAHOO.—Farmer's meetings are scheduled at Colon hall and Marietta Presbyterian church for Monday evening, January 2. The Farmer's Local Union No. 23 will meet at Mead on Thursday evening January 25. The regular farmers meeting at Ithaca is scheduled for Thursday, January 25. The following topics will be taken up: Cotton, old fashioned spelling contest; Marietta, modern home conveniences.—talks and s l es; Ithaca, farm butchering-talks. local 23. Mead, modern home conveniences—talks and slides.

Production Costs.

DAVID CITY.Several arguments were had last week at the farm bureau management school, being conducted by E. L. Taylor o fthe college of agriculture, over an attempted calculation of the averake cost of production of an acre of corn. To get definite cost of production, several of those present are going to keep farm account books in 1923. Lessons in keeping farm accounts were given and a dumy set of accounts was made by each of the men present.

Annual Meeting.

SYRACUSE.—The annual meeting of the Otoe county Live Stock Breeder's association was held at the office of County Agent A. H. DeLong, Saturday afternoon, W. J. Wirth of Dunbar heads the organization another year, with Harry Severe of Palmyra acting as vice-president. The county agent will continue to act as secretary. Without a dissenting vote, the organization went on record as favoring a county fair.

Miss Gladys Legg, clothing specialist from the agriculture colleke held an interesting and profitable four day session near Nebraska City January 9-10-11 and 12, to teach the principles of dress construction to a number of ladies, who in turn are to pass this information on to their respective communities.

Stockholders Meet.

RED CLOUD—Stockholders of the Webster county federal farm loan association held their annual meeting Friday, January 12. John Zimmerman of Guide Rock was elected president, Chas. Cowley, Bladen, vice-president, and Henry Fausch, Red Cloud, secretary-treasurer, Vet Widdersheim, Bladen, Joe Gurney, Inavale, Carl Fausch Guide Rock, were elected directors. Nineteen applications were received asking for $131,900. Twelve loans were closed for $56,400. This made a total of 34 federal farm loans in Webster county for $202,400,000.

Gas Engine School.

GENEVA — Arrangements have been made to secure the services of an engineer from the agricultural college to conduct a two day gas engine school in Fillmore county, according to County Agents Lee W. Thompson and Edna C. Pegler. This work has proved to be very popular in other counties. Twelve boys and girls clubs have been organized during the fall and early winter to conduct winted projects. Work is being done in sewing, hot lunch and keepwell clubs. The club work in all cases is being carried on in the schools with the teacher acting as club leader. The United States government has been distributing Picric acid, a salvaged war explosive, free for agricultural purposes. Nine hundred pounds of this material have been ordered by Fillmore county farmers.

Soil Service.

WEEPING WATER.—Soil service will be discussed in a series of six soil meetings, scheduled for Cass county January 23, 24 and 25, according to L. R. Snipes, county extension agent. There will be two meetings a day. Mr. Stewart of the agricultural college will assist in holding these meetings and will explain how a soil survey map is made and how it can be used. He will show how the soil varies over the county, and what the difference are as to its formation, fertility, and management. The trials at the experiment station as to rotation seed bed preparation and other points will be shown by charts, microscopes, rocks, various kinds of soil and other interesting exhibits will be on hand.

Permanent Program.

OMAHA—A permanent program for the building up of a more profitable agriculture and a satisfying country life is being developed in Douglas county through the co-operation of members of the county farm bureau and state college of agriculture according to Earl G. Maxwell, county agricultural agent. At a meeting January 13, of representative farmers and their wives, a representative from the state extension service and the county agent, a careful analysis was made of the agricultural conditions in the county. The discussion at this meeting brought out many valuable suggestions and the program when completed will afford an outline of activities that will cover a period of years and should result in additional earning power amounting to thousands of dollars for this county. Among the things to be encouraged are: Keeping of complete farm records, an increased acreage of legumes, use of more home grown feeds, improvement of the quality of livestock disease and pest control, improvement of quality of poultry and management and the development of home project including home health, nutrition and sewing. Plans are also being developed for a well organized protective branch of the farm bureau for the purpose of curbing country thieving and sale of blue sky stock.

Special Meetings.

BLAIR—Special meetings, somewhat similar to the old farmer's institute meetings, will be held in Washington county next week, January 22, 24 and 25. The farm bureau has arranged for a soils expert from the university to hold six meetings in different parts of the county. Tests will be made at the meetings and explanations given of the different classes of soils in the county. The meetings will be held as follows: Tuesday afternoon at Calhoun; Tuesday evening at Arlington; Wednesday afternoon at Sheridan; Wednesday evening at Herman; Thursday afternoon in Cuming City; and Thursday evening in Richland.

Poultry Meeting.

CLAY CENTER—Fifty people attended the poultry judging and mating school held Thursday, January 11 in the Clay county farm bureau assembly room. Instruction was given regarding mating of the different breeds and varieties by C. T. Cornman of the agricultural college. The discussion following Mr. Cornman's talk on sanitation and disease prevention showed that losses can be prevented by balancing rations, proper feeding and exercise, and cleanliness. From 80 to 100 people attended the second day meetings of the poultry school on Friday. People from all parts of the county asked questions and took part in the discussions. The discussion on incubation brought out many essentials for good hatching that will prevent many failures during the next few months.

Requests Information.

BATTLE CREEK—Requests for information on sweet clover growing and sources of seed for the covering of 446 acres have been received in the last week by R. A. Stewart, county agricultural agent for Madison county. Requests for sources of seeds, covering 391 acres have come in from outside of the county. Hardly a week passes, according to Mr. Stewart, but what he receives at least a half dozen inquiries concerning the securing of seed. Each inquiry this past week with one exception, has insisted upon seed that has been scarified. According to Mr. Stewart, scarifying will increase the per cent of germination from 50 to 90 per cent.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IN A MOMENT

Try This! Hair Appears Soft, Colorful and Abundant —A Gleamy Mass

35 Cent Bottle of "Danderine" Also Ends Dandruff; Falling Hair!

Immediately!—your hair becomes beautiful. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt of any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and really appear twice as thick and abundant—a mass of luxuriant, glinty, colorful hair.

Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine eradicates dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is the best, cheapest and most delightful hair corrective and tonic. It is to the hair what fresh showers of rain are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, vitalizes and strenghtens them. Its stimulating properties help the hair to grow long, heavy, strong.

You can surely have beautiful hair, and lots of it if you will spend 35 cents for a bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter. It is not greasy, oily or sticky.—Advertisement.

Nurse Saves 2 People From Operation

"I had two patients that the doctors seemed unable to reach with their medicines and in both cases advised the knife. A friend who had tried Mayr's Wonder Remedy for Stomach trouble proposed that I recommend it to my patients, which I did. Both are now entirely well. I am very glad that I was able to recommend it." It removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract, and allays th inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
